The Fifty-Seventh Inaugural Prayer Service

Prayer of St. Patrick

Canon Michael McCarthy, Director

God be with me,
God within me,
God behind me,
God before me,
God beside me,
God to win me,
God to comfort and restore me.

God beneath me,
God above me,
God in quiet,
God in danger,
God in hearts of all that love me,
God in mouth of friend and stranger.

Hymn

For the healing of the nations

Sung by all.

Cwm Rhondda

For the healing of the nations, God, we pray with one accord;
Lead us forward into freedom; from despair your world release,
All that spoils abundant living, let it from the earth be banned;
You, Creator God, have written your great name on human kind;
for a just and equal sharing of the things that earth affords;
that, redeemed from war and hatred, all may come and go in peace.
pride of status, self, or custom, precepts that obscure your plan.
for our growing in your likeness bring the life of love to mind,
to a life of love in action help us rise and pledge our word.
Show us how through care and goodness fear will die and hope increase.
In our common quest for justice may we hallow life’s brief span.
that by our response and service earth its destiny may find,
word, help us rise and pledge our word.
crace, fear will die and hope increase.
span, may we hallow life’s brief span.
find, earth its destiny may find.
Welcome

The Right Reverend Mariann Edgar Budde
Bishop, Episcopal Diocese of Washington

The Very Reverend Gary Hall
Dean, Washington National Cathedral

Opening Acclamation

The Reverend Dr. Sharon E. Watkins
General Minister and President, Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in the United States and Canada

Dr. Watkins
God be merciful unto us, and bless us.

People
Shine the light of your glory upon us, and be merciful to us;

Dr. Watkins
That your ways may be known upon earth,

People
Your saving health among all nations.

Dr. Watkins
Let the people praise you, O God:

People
Let all the people praise you.

Dr. Watkins
Blessed be the One, holy and living God.

People
Glory to God for ever and ever.

A Prayer for the Day

The Reverend Dr. Barbara Williams-Skinner
Co-Chair, National African American Clergy Network

Dr. Williams-Skinner
Look graciously, Mighty God, upon this land.
Where it is in pride, subdue it.
Where it is in need, supply it.
Where it is in error, rectify it.
Where it is in default, restore it.
And where it holds to that which is just and compassionate, support it.
In your holy Name we pray.

All
Amen.

The First Reading

The Reverend Elder Nancy L. Wilson
Moderator, Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches

Isaiah 55:6–11

Seek the Lord while he wills to be found; call upon him when he draws near. Let the wicked forsake their ways and the evil ones their thoughts; and let them turn to the Lord, and he will have compassion, and to our God, for he will richly pardon. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor your ways my ways, says the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts. For as rain and snow fall from the heavens and return not again, but water the earth, bringing forth life and giving growth, seed for sowing and bread for eating, so is my word that goes forth from my mouth; it will not return to me empty; but it will accomplish that which I have purposed, and prosper in that for which I sent it.

Elder Wilson

The Word of the Lord.

People

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 116:4–12

Rabbi Julie Schonfeld
Executive Vice President, Rabbinical Assembly

Gracious is the Lord and righteous;
our God is full of compassion.
The Lord watches over the innocent;
for you have rescued my life from death, my eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling.
I was brought very low, and he helped me.
Turn again to your rest, O my soul,
for the Lord has treated you well.
I believe, even when I said, “I have been brought very low.”
How shall I repay the Lord for all the good things he has done for me?
I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living.
In my distress I said, “No one can be trusted.”
I will lift up the cup of salvation and call upon the Name of the Lord.
I will fulfill my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people.

For the beauty of the earth

For the beauty of the earth,
for the beauty of the skies,
for the love which from our birth
over and around us lies,
Lord of all, to thee we raise
this our joyful hymn of praise.

For the beauty of each hour of the day and of the night,
hill and vale, and tree and flower,
sun and moon, and stars of light.
Lord of all, to thee we raise
this our joyful hymn of praise.

For the joy of human love,
brother, sister, parent, child,
friends on earth, and friends above,
for all gentle thoughts and mild,
Lord of all, to thee we raise
this our joyful hymn of praise.

For each perfect gift of thine to our race so freely given,
graces human and divine,
flowers of earth and buds of heaven,
Lord of all, to thee we raise
this our joyful hymn of praise.

Sh'ma Yisrael – Hear, O Israel

Deuteronomy 6:4–9

Translated from Hebrew: Hear, O Israel, the Lord is our God, the Lord is One. Blessed be the Name of his glorious kingdom for ever and ever. And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be in your heart. And you shall teach them diligently to your children, and you shall speak of them when you sit at home, and when you walk along the way, and when you lie down and when you rise up. And you shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be for frontlets between your eyes. And you shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

PRAYERS FOR THOSE WHO GOVERN

The Reverend Dr. Leith Anderson
President, National Association of Evangelicals

Dr. Anderson Faithful God: accept the fervent prayers of all your people. In the multitude of your mercies, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O Lover of Souls. Let us pray for those charged with the governance of our nation.

Kathryn Lohre
President, National Council of Churches

Ms. Lohre Strengthen the hearts of our President, Barack, and our Vice President, Joseph. Make them bold for the work you have set before them. Grant them wisdom to discern your will and to consider your word among the counsels they receive. Uphold them, that they may discharge their duties in the full light of divine grace. Keep this nation under your care.

People Guide us in the way of justice and truth.

Ms. Lohre Give courage to the Senators and Members of the House of Representatives to hear the people’s voice and to provide for the common good. Give them the vision to care for your creation. Lead them to willingly fulfill our obligations and responsibilities in the community of nations. Keep this nation under your care.

People Guide us in the way of justice and truth.

Ms. Lohre Stir up the passion and reverence of the Justices of the Supreme Court for the rule of law and the way of justice. Fill their deliberations with insight and their judgments with integrity, as they act to secure human rights and the flourishing of responsible freedom. Keep this nation under your care.

People Guide us in the way of justice and truth.

Imam Mohamed Magid
President, Islamic Society of North America

Imam Magid Guide, we beseech you, O Lord, all those to whom we commit the government of this nation. Give them the discernment and self-control necessary to our time. May they consider all questions calmly, negotiate sincerely, and act wisely and promptly in all things. Give them the desire to uphold the right, abhorring the wrong and performing that which is just so that in all things, your will may be done. Let us pray to the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The people are seated.

THE SECOND READING

II Corinthians 4:6–10

His Eminence Donald Cardinal Wuerl
Roman Catholic Archbishop of Washington, District of Columbia

It is God who said, “Let light shine out of darkness,” who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us. We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be made visible in our bodies.

Cardinal Wuerl The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Determined to Go On

To go on; I’m determined; yes I am, to go on.
Whatever comes my way; I’ll trust you and obey.
For I am determined, yes, I am, to go on.

I’m pressing on, the upward way;
New heights I’m gaining each and every day.

Determined, I will make it.
Determined, I will take it.
The race is not given to the swift, nor to the strong;
But to the one who endureth, ’til the very end.

Might not be able to feel it, nor even see it;
Walk by faith, not by sight.

It’s mine, mine, my healing
It’s mine, mine, my deliverance
It’s mine, mine, my breakthrough
It’s mine, mine, my blessing

Say Yes! I believe it.
Say Yes! I receive it.

For I am determined yes, I am, to go on.

Prayers for Those Who Serve

Sapreet Kaur
National Executive Director, The Sikh Coalition

Ms. Kaur

God of compassion: be near to all who call upon your name in the course of daily life, work, and service. You call and gift us for work that brings us joy and embodies concern for our neighbors. Make us glad and grateful for the strength to serve you and our neighbor. Let us pray for those who, through any form of service, offer themselves in devotion to our nation.

Rev. Jenkins

Almighty God, we commend to your care and keeping all the men and women of our armed forces at home and abroad. Grant them a sense of your abiding presence: strengthen them in every trial and temptation, defend them in places of danger and peril; sustain them in their courage and dedication. Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

People

That our works may find favor in your sight.

Rev. Jenkins

Almighty God: bless your people who govern in every place. Instill the leaders of states and school boards, counties and cities, courts and agencies with a disposition to use their authority for the betterment of all the people of this nation. Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

People

That our works may find favor in your sight.

Dr. Schneck

Director of the Institute for Policy Research and Catholic Studies, Catholic University of America

Dr. Schneck

Give to all the people of our land, O God, the desire to serve you in their life and vocation. May your presence be manifest in all that we say and do. Weave together the work of every hand and the commitment of every heart: for we recognize our interdependence, our responsibilities to one another, and the mutuality of our destiny. Let us pray to the Lord.

People

Thanks be to God.

The Third Reading

Matthew 5:13–16

The Reverend Gabriel Salguero
President, National Latino Evangelical Coalition

Jesus said, “You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled under foot. You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.”

Rev. Salguero

Prayers for the People

God of love: you challenge us to widen the boundaries of our hearts. You know us better than we know ourselves: the distinctions we make, the favoritism we practice, the ways we live as impediments to your mercy. By your transforming word of love, give depth to our faith; that our actions may witness to the wideness of your mercy. Let us pray that you would come among us as presence, as light, as life.

Challenge us, O God: that even as we love our own country, you would have us develop a global perspective. In your eyes, the world is our neighborhood. Grant us every necessary grace to love our neighbors as ourselves. Open our eyes to see the life-giving and the good in every person and every place. As neighbors become friends, may we work to restore the wonder of the world you have made. Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours.

Cause us to “put our bodies and souls in motion” in the spirit of our brother Martin on behalf of the poor and disenfranchised, the worn and the weary, the bruised and the afflicted. Renew our capacity for mercy; fashion in us a dream for our time, powerful enough to transform the lives of all whom you love; for the well-being of all you have made. Bless all those whose lives are closely linked with ours.

Call us to join the artists and artisans, the preachers and the prophets, the laborers and the belabored who hold aloft the lamp of your truth in a world too willing to settle for darkness. Give us such a heart for the newness you would bring that all lesser things will fail to satisfy. Bless those whose lives are closely linked with ours.

Open our hearts, God of all, to pray for those who will this day face any great decision, for all who will engage in settling the affairs of peoples and of nations, for all who mold public opinion in our time, for all who write what others will read. Send us forth to work another day, surrounded by your lovingkindness, pledged to faithful service, standing in your strength and not our own. As former things pass away, O God, make all things new. Let us pray to the Lord.

Thanks be to God.
HYMN
Come, thou fount of every blessing
Sung by all.

Nettleton

| 1 Come, thou fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace! Streams of mercy never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise. Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by flaming tongues above. Praise the mount! Oh, fix me on it, mount of God’s unchanging love. |
| 2 Here I find my greatest treasure; hitherto by thy help, I’ve come; and I hope, by thy goodness, like a pleasure, safely to arrive at home. Let thy goodness, like a fetter, bind my wandering heart to thee; Jesus sought me when a stranger wandering from the fold of God; he, to rescue me from leave the God I love; here’s my heart, oh, take and danger, interposed his precious blood, seal it, seal it for thy courts above. |
| 3 Oh, to grace how great a debt or daily I’m constrained to be! Let thy goodness, like a fetter, bind my wandering heart to thee; |

Anthem

Dr. Wintley Phipps
President and Chief Executive Officer, US Dream Academy

I believe

I believe for every drop of rain that falls a flower grows.
I believe that somewhere in the darkest night a candle glows.
I believe for everyone who goes astray someone will come to show the way.
I believe, I believe.

I believe above the storm the smallest prayer will still be heard.
I believe that someone in the great somewhere hears every word.
Every time I hear a newborn baby cry, or touch a leaf, or see the sky, then I know why I believe!

A Prayer for the Nation

The Most Reverend Katharine Jefferts Schori
Presiding Bishop and Primate of The Episcopal Church

Bishop Jefferts Schori
Almighty God, you have given us this good land as our heritage.
Make us always remember your generosity and constantly do your will.
Bless our land with honest industry and an honorable way of life.
Save us from violence, discord, and confusion;
from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way.
Make us who come from many nations with many different languages a united people.
Defend our liberties and give those whom we have entrusted with the authority of government the spirit of wisdom, that there might be justice and peace in our land.
When times are prosperous, let our hearts be thankful, and in troubled times, do not let our trust in you fail.
In your holy Name we pray.

People
Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

The Reverend Kirbyjon Caldwell
Senior Pastor, Windsor Village United Methodist Church, Houston, Texas

Rev. Caldwell
As we join our prayers with those of people across the nation, so we say, each in our own language, the prayer that Jesus has taught us,

All
Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.
Hymn
America, the Beautiful

Sung by the Cathedral Choir.

O beautiful for spacious skies, for amber waves of grain, for purple mountain majesties above the fruited plain!
America! America!
God shed his grace on thee, and crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea.

O beautiful for heroes proved in liberating strife, who more than self their country loved, and mercy more than life!
America! America!
God mend thine every flaw, confirm thy soul in self-control, thy liberty in law.

Dr. Warnock
And I dreamed a dream. I saw a land. And on the hills walked men and women, boys and girls, hand in hand. They were diverse in backgrounds, variegated in their humanity. They looked into each other's eyes, and they were not afraid. And I said to the one standing beside me, “What is this?” And he said, “It exists already in the hearts of those who have the courage to believe and struggle.” And so I asked, “When is this?” And he said “When we learn the simple art of loving one another as sisters and brothers.”

For as your servant Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., said—from this very pulpit on the last Sunday sermon of his life—“We must all learn to live together as brothers and sisters or we will all perish together as fools.”

Let us recommit ourselves this day to one another and to the work of building together the beloved community. May God transform the jangling discords of our nation into a beautiful symphony of the human family. And through us may all the families of the earth be blessed. To God who loves us into freedom and frees us into loving, we offer this prayer.

People
Amen.
Great is thy faithfulness, O God my Father,

Thou chang-est not, thy com-pas-sions, they fail not,
Join with all na-ture in man-i-fold wit-ness,
Strength for to-day and bright hope for to-mor-row,

As thou hast been thou for-ev-er wilt be.
To thy great faith-ful-ness, mer-cy and love.
Bless-ings all mine, with ten thou-sand be-side!

Great is thy faith-ful-ness! Great is thy faith-ful-ness!
