Introduction

“Let us pray.”

Those words can be so embracing, so soothing. But there are times when they simply remind us that we don’t have time to pray — not the way we long to. We want to pray without ceasing, but we also want to repair that engine and train the puppy and plow the south 40 before sunset. Still, the call to prayer is strong. The call to pray throughout the day has sounded for centuries as a way to deepen our faith.

Daily Prayer for All Seasons provides a holy — and wholly realistic — way to order our days, no matter how full they seem.

Daily Prayer for All Seasons was compiled and written by a diverse team of people from all over the United States. We came together periodically over four years to create a set of prayers that acknowledge in their brevity both the need to pray and the short time we have to pray. The Daily Prayer for All Seasons team comprised people like you: we have jobs and families, groceries and gardens and ironing; subways to catch, doctors to see, and reports to write. We put these demands on the table. We never lost sight of those pressures on our time and energy as we plowed through wonderful resources for meditation and song, assembling the richest ones into a prayer book for all of us, clergy and laity, who think we’re too busy to pray.
Background of Daily Prayer

People in all kinds of religious traditions, including Judaism and Christianity, have been marking time with prayer for almost as long as we’ve had hours. “Praying the hours,” as it’s called, has always reminded us that God walks with us throughout each day; “praying the hours” is also a way that the community of faith comes together, whether we’re all in one place or scattered like raindrops. Praying at set hours links us, both to God and to all God’s people. We know this, and we are comforted.

In The Episcopal Church, our Book of Common Prayer offers beautiful services for morning, noon, evening, and nighttime in a section called “The Daily Office” (pp. 35-146). Daily Prayer for All Seasons offers a variation on that theme, a shortened version, where a complete service covers one or two pages at most, thereby eliminating the need to shuffle prayer books and hymnals. Daily Prayer for All Seasons works for individuals, small groups, and/or congregations. This prayer book presents a variety of images of God by including inclusive and expansive language for and about God, and it presents a variety of words by including poetry, meditation and prayers from the broader community of faith.
How to Use These Materials

The church divides its calendar into periods called “seasons,” which track the events of Jesus’ birth, death and resurrection and the coming of the Holy Spirit to the Church. The seasons are Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, Holy Week (the final week of Lent), and Easter, followed by what the church calls Ordinary Time; because Ordinary Time is the longest season in the church year, we crafted two sets of services for the summertime: Creation (spiritual growth) and Rest. The eight sets of seasonal prayers provide the outer structure of Daily Prayer for All Seasons.

For the inner structure, each set of seasonal prayers falls into eight “hours,” which follows the pattern of Benedictine monks, who divided the day into a cycle of eight intervals, called “hours,” that effected a rhythm between work (labora) and prayer (ora). As a contemporary complement, the committee crafting Daily Prayer for All Seasons assigned a specific labor to each prayer “hour”: We named dawn as the time for praise; we designated starting the day as the time for discernment; later morning, wisdom; midday, perseverance and renewal; afternoon, love; evening, forgiveness; bedtime, trust; and midnight we named as the time to watch. Each hour has a name, which also dates back to Christian monastic history and which we printed in italics after the hour’s “work” name, for example, Praise (Lauds).
Don’t be inhibited by the hours as we’ve labeled them. Maybe your day “starts” at the crack of noon or your bedtime comes after the night shift; maybe the end of your workday marks only the beginning of meetings for another part of your life. It’s all right to adjust the prayers to the day as you live it, no matter how topsy-turvy it seems.

Adaptations for the prayers, lessons, meditations, and hymns may be made to suit the occasion. The questions that are provided for the meditations are only suggestions. They may be freely adapted, other questions may be used, or a period of silence may be kept.
Format for the Hours

BASIC FORM (Praise, Watch): Written in first person and generally anticipated for private use.

Entering and Going out (or Closing): the same simple, short call-and-response, which emphasizes the spiritual work of the hour

Scripture: a short, easily memorized passage, related to both the time and the season

Meditation: a question or a prompt for spiritual reflection

Prayer: a closing collect related to the hour and season

SHORTER HOURS DURING THE DAY (Wisdom, Perseverance and Renewal, Love, Trust): Intended for group use, may be adapted for individual use. These add the following to the basic form:

Prayer: an opening collect, suited to time and season

Praise: hymn, psalm, or canticle

Meditation: an inspirational quote precedes the prompt for reflection

Prayers: responsive prayers of the people, with space for personal intercession and thanksgiving
Lord’s Prayer: Versions of the prayer are omitted to allow for local traditions; if praying in a group, the leader may choose to specify the form of the prayer (old/new, short/long, English/other language) to be used or encourage worshippers to pray in the language of the heart (versions of the Lord’s Prayer appear in the Appendix).

LONGER HOURS (Discernment, Forgiveness): Intended for group use, may be adapted for individual use. To the above, add the following:

Discernment: affirmation
Forgiveness: confession and assurance of pardon (the latter allows for lay leadership of the hour whereas absolution requires a bishop or priest)

The consultants who began this project in 2007 did so in prayer and with the hope that anyone — newcomer, stalwart, or someone in between — who wants to pray within the Christian tradition will be enriched by Daily Prayer for All Seasons.

Advent

The Christian calendar begins its new year not on January 1, but on the first Sunday of Advent — which is always four Sundays before Christmas (December 25) and the Sunday closest to St. Andrew’s Day (November 30). Our word “Advent” derives from the Latin Adventus, which means “coming,” and originally referred just to the coming of the feast of Christmas. But over time the season of Advent took on a double meaning. Today it refers both to the “first coming” of Jesus Christ in his birth at Christmas and to his “second coming” at the end of time.

It is important to remember that Advent is not just a season in which we recall an event of the past — Jesus’ birth — but also a time in which we look to the present and the future. When will Jesus come again? When will we see the kingdom of God on earth, as it is in heaven? Of course no one knows. And so the more important questions are: What can we do as the Church, Christ’s body here on earth, to welcome God’s reign of justice and peace today? What can we do as individuals to reorder our lives in the light of God’s love? What would it mean to live as a people who believe in Jesus as the Savior of all the earth and who expect him to come again at the fulfillment of time? Each Advent we turn to these questions anew. 1
Praise

Lauds  (Traditional hour: dawn/waking up)

Laudate, omnes gentes, laudate Dominum!
[Sing praises, all people, sing praises to the Lord!]
We greet the new day by praising the Creator
(the ancient name for this hour, Lauds, means “praise”).

Opening  Praise the Lord, O my soul:
Praise God’s holy name.

Scripture  The glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together.  Isaiah 40:5

Meditation  How will I look for God’s glory today?
How will I help others see it?

Prayers  Come, Emmanuel, come dwell with me.
Hope of the world and Word of life:
Come, Emmanuel, come dwell with me.

Going Out  Praise the Lord, O my soul:
Praise God’s holy name.
Discernment

Prime (Traditional hour: morning/start of the day)

As we begin the day, we focus on our calling to live faithfully, for who knows what today holds?

Opening God’s bright glory will shine, and everyone will see it. Isaiah 40:5

Prayer O Holy One, thank you for coming to us anew this day. Prepare our hearts and reawaken our love for you as we discern your call within us. May we join with you in making level the path for all people. Amen.

Praise Prepare the way, O Zion

(Music, if desired, may be found in The Hymnal 1982, #65.)

Prepare the way, O Zion, your Christ is drawing near! Let every hill and valley a level way appear. Greet one who comes in glory, foretold in sacred story.

Refrain Oh, blest is Christ that came in God’s most holy name.

Words: Frans Mikael Franzen (1772-1847); tr. composite; adapt. Charles P. Price (1920-1999)

Scripture A voice cries out: “In the wilderness prepare the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill be made low; the uneven ground shall become level, and the rough places a plain. Then the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together, for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.” Isaiah 40:3-5
Meditation  To enter Advent we leave fear for faith. Sam Portaro

What fears must we release in order to level the way for ourselves and for others?

Affirmation

We believe in God, Creator of all:
   The two-legged, the four-legged,
   the winged ones, and those that crawl upon the earth and swim in the waters.

We believe in God, One Who Walked with Us:
   Our Brother Jesus born in humility, who lived and died for us and who will come again to bring us to glory.

We believe in God, Spirit with Us:
   Ever present and ever guiding, upholding us and showing us the principles to live by.
   We hear God’s voice through the prophets.

Creator, One Who Walked with Us, Spirit with Us, Holy One:

We are named in the waters of baptism as your own,
all of us related, all of us your children.
We watch for signs of your homecoming and thank you for this sacred circle of life. Amen.
Prayers
In the beginning, it is dark, cool, and quiet, and we ask you:

Invite us into your presence, O Christ.

We do not know your works, Holy One, yet still we ask you:

Invite us into your presence, O Christ.

We look to the rising sun and trust that you invite us into your presence, O Christ.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

You are our Shepherd, and we need nothing more. We rejoice in your presence with us in all of creation. Amen.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer
God of hope, you call us from the exile of our sin with the good news of restoration; you build a highway through the wilderness; you come to us to bring us home. Comfort us with the expectation of your saving power, made known in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Going Out  God’s bright glory will shine, and everyone will see it.
Wisdom

Terce (Traditional hour: mid-morning)

Having asked for direction and guidance, we pray now to equip ourselves properly for the journey ahead.

Opening

All that we owe is redeemed in the love of God.

Prayer

Wise and loving God, you bear us for joy. In humility, you show us wisdom. Enfold us at this hour with the knowledge born of love. Awaken within us the desire to know rightly and the will to live justly, with grace and generosity. Amen.

Praise

A Song of True Motherhood

God chose to be our mother in all things * and so made the foundation of his work, most humbly and most pure, in the Virgin’s womb.
God, the perfect wisdom of all * arrayed himself in this humble place.
Christ came in our poor flesh *
to share a mother’s care.
Our mothers bear us for pain and for death; *
our true mother, Jesus, bears us for joy and endless life.
Christ carried us within him in love and travail, *
until the full time of his passion.
And when all was complete and he had carried us so for joy, * still all this could not satisfy the power of his wonderful love.
All that we owe is redeemed in truly loving God, *
for the love of Christ works in us;
Christ is the one whom we love.

Julian of Norwich

Scripture  A shoot shall come out from the stump of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots. The spirit of the Lord shall rest on him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the LORD. He shall not judge by what his eyes see, or decide by what his ears hear; but with righteousness he shall judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth.

Isaiah 11: 1-2, 4

Meditation  The desert is always the same, the sky is always beautiful, the road deserted…. The only thing that is always new is God.

Carlo Carretto

How will we ask for new eyes to see God and to see the needs in God’s world?

Prayers  Holy One, as we prepare for the advent of Christ, Give us your spirit of wisdom. As we seek to embody your love in the world, Give us your spirit of good counsel. As we seek to be faithful, Give us eyes to see beyond the obvious. As we gather in this hour, we lift all in need before you.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

May we be instruments of your peace on earth as we accept the gifts of your Spirit.

Lord’s Prayer
Prayer  God, whose holy name defies our definition but whose will is known in freeing the oppressed: Make us one with all who cry for justice, that we who speak your praise may struggle for your truth; through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Going Out  All that we owe is redeemed in the love of God.
Perseverance and Renewal

Sext (Traditional hour: mid-day)

As we pause to feed our bodies in the middle of the day, we pause also to feed our souls by vowing again to live faithfully.

Opening

Do not be afraid. God is with us, always.

Prayer

Shepherd of Israel, may Jesus, who is Emmanuel and son of Mary, be more than just a dream in our hearts. With the apostles, prophets, and saints, save us, restore us, and lead us in the way of grace and peace, that we may bear your promise into the world. Amen.

Praise The Song of Mary (Magnificat; Luke 1:46-55)

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in you, O God, my Savior, for you have looked with favor on your servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed: you, the Almighty, have done great things for me, and holy is your Name. You have mercy on those who fear you from generation to generation. You have shown strength with your arm and scattered the proud in their conceit, Casting down the mighty from their thrones and lifting up the lowly. You have filled the hungry with good things and sent the rich away empty. You have come to the help of your servant Israel, for you have remembered your promise of mercy, The promise made to our forebears, to Abraham and his children for ever.
Scripture  When a woman is in labor, she has pain, because her hour has come. But when her child is born, she no longer remembers the anguish because of the joy of having brought a human being into the world. So you have pain now; but I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy from you.

John 16: 21-22

Meditation  Ask yourself: Will this satisfy a woman satisfied to bear a child? Will this disturb the sleep of a woman near to giving birth?

Wendell Berry

As we seek our own renewal, we look at others through the lens of compassion; how will this point of view affect our choices?

Prayers  For our deepest and most holy longings we pray:
Renew us, O God.
For all who wander, who hunger, who thirst:
Renew us as people of service and compassion.
For this planet, our home:
Renew our will to be healers of creation.
For this and every nation:
Renew in all people the will for good and the longing for peace.
For those whom we hold in our hearts:

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

Bless these and all creation with your goodness, and renew our trust in your love. Amen.
Lord’s Prayer

Prayer
O God of Elizabeth and Mary, you visited your servants with news of the world’s redemption in the coming of the Savior: Make our hearts leap with joy, and fill our mouths with songs of praise, that we may announce glad tidings of peace and welcome the Christ in our midst. Amen.

Going Out
Do not be afraid.
God is with us, always.
Love

None  (Traditional hour: afternoon)

As shadows lengthen, we are filled by the day’s encounters; now, more than ever, we accept the depth and breadth of God’s grace.

Opening  In the beginning, God created, and it was good.

In the beginning was the Word.

Prayer  Creator of the world, you are the potter, we are the clay, and you form us in your own image: Shape our spirits by Christ’s transforming power, that as one people we may live out your compassion and justice, whole and sound in the realm of your peace.

Amen.

Praise  O Come, thou Dayspring

(Music, if desired, may be found in The Hymnal 1982, #56.)

O come, thou Dayspring from on high,
and cheer us by thy drawing nigh;
Disperse the gloomy clouds of night and death’s dark shadow put to flight.
Rejoice! Rejoice!
Emmanuel shall come again
and with us ever dwell.

O come, Desire of nations,
bind in one the hearts of humankind;
Bid thou our sad divisions cease,
and be thyself our King of Peace.
Rejoice! Rejoice!
Emmanuel shall come again
and with us ever dwell.
Scripture
For the mountains may depart and the hills be removed, but my steadfast love shall not depart from you, and my covenant of peace shall not be removed, says the Lord, who has compassion on you.

Isaiah 54:10

Meditation
Hail, Mary, full of grace.
The Lord is with you.
Blessed are you among women, And blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus.

How have we received love today, and how will we bear its fruit to others?

Prayers
God of compassion,
Teach us to embody your love.
God of faithfulness,
Help us be constant in service.
God of all creation,
Give us compassion for all your children.
God of blessing, hear our prayers.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

God of love,
Draw our hearts to you.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer
God of community, whose call is more insistent than ties of family or blood: May we so respect and love those whose lives are linked with ours that we fail not in loyalty to you but make choices according to your will. Amen.

Going Out
In the beginning, God created, and it was good.
In the beginning was the Word.
Forgiveness

Vespers  (Traditional hour: dusk/end of the day)

As we turn on lamps at dusk, we greet the evening by welcoming God to abide with us anew.

Opening  All who thirst come to the waters.

Prayer  Holy One, whose coming we await, you invite us into the light of your presence: Illumine the dim places of our hearts. We are thirsty for your compassion. Draw near to us and fill us, that we may pour out your goodness to all who hunger.
Amen.

Praise  A Song of the Spirit (Revelation 22:12-17) 15

“Behold, I am coming soon,” says the Lord, “and bringing my reward with me, * to give to everyone according to their deeds.
I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, * the beginning and the end.”
Blessed are those who do God’s commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, * and enter the city through the gates.
“I, Jesus, have sent my angel to you, * with this testimony for all the churches.
“I am the root and the offspring of David, * I am the bright morning star.”
“Come!” say the Spirit and the Bride; * “Come!” let each hearer reply!
Come forward, you who are thirsty, * let those who desire take the water of life as a gift.
Scripture  Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and you that have no money, come, buy and eat! Come buy wine and milk without money and wisdom without price. Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good. Seek the Lord while he may be found, call upon him while he is near. Isaiah 55:1-2a, 6

Meditation  Redemption is the journey of being reconnected to the light of God within. It is a journey home that takes us through what seems like unknown land. … Redemption is not the bringing of light to a creation that is essentially dark, but rather the liberating of light from the heart of life. J. Philip Newell 16

Where do we thirst for the light of redemption today? How will we offer that light to others who thirst?

Confession  Most Holy God,
In the midst of this season of new life, we confess:
   We have resisted the light of your love;
   we have not fully shared the gifts entrusted to us; and we have not treasured the gifts of others around us.
   We stand in need of your love.
Holy Father, make us holy.
Holy Jesus, make us holy.
Holy Spirit, make us holy.
Holy God, make us whole. Amen. 17
Assurance of Pardon
God forgives us and loves us, and invites us to continue the journey.
As a woman is delivered from the pain of her labor to the joy of cradling her child, so are we delivered into God’s grace.

Prayers
Holy One, healer of the world,
Shed your light upon this world.
Holy One, healer of brokenness,
Make us bold to share your light with others.
Holy One, healer of the world, we offer our prayers:

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

Lead us to wholeness
And make us shine with your light of healing love.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer
God, our healer, whose mercy is like a refining fire: Touch us with your judgment and confront us with your tenderness; that, being comforted by you, we may reach out to a troubled world; through Jesus Christ. Amen. 18

Going Out
All who thirst
come to the waters.
Trust

Compline  (Traditional hour: night/bedtime)

We sum up this day with a bedtime prayer to examine our conscience and offer our actions to God.

Opening  Be strong and let your heart take courage, all you who wait for the Lord.

Psalm 31:24

Prayer  Holy One, whose coming we await, we lift our hearts to you: Remind us of your faithfulness, that we may trust ever more deeply in your grace. We set down the tasks of the day so that we may arise renewed, to love and serve you. Amen.

Praise  The Song of Hannah  (1 Samuel 2:1-2,8) 19

My heart exults in you, O God; *
   My triumph song is lifted in you.
For I rejoice in your salvation: *
   There is none holy like you.
God raises the poor from the dust; *
   And lifts the needy from the ash heap
To make them sit with the rulers * and inherit a place of honor.
For the pillars of the earth are God’s * on which the whole earth is founded.

Scripture  The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me; he has sent me to bring good news to the oppressed, to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and release to the prisoners; and to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.

Isaiah 61:1-2a
Meditation A Reflection on Finding your Way: What To Do in the Darkness

Go slowly
Consent to it
But don’t wallow in it
Know it as a place of germination
And growth
Remember the light
Take an outstretched hand if you find one Exercise unused senses
Find the path by walking in it
Practice trust
Watch for dawn

Marilyn Chandler McEntyre

How shall we travel through the darkness of Advent?

Prayers God of grace and hope:

Help us to move from fear to trust.
Your grace surrounds and fills us:
Remind us that you provide all we need.
Your healing love is offered to all:

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

May we be full of peace in our waiting
And full of joy in our praise of you. Amen.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer Merciful God of peace, your word, spoken by the prophets, restores your people’s life and hope:

Fill our hearts with the joy of your saving grace, that we may hold fast to your great goodness and proclaim your justice in all the world. Amen.

Closing Be strong and let your heart take courage, all you who wait for the Lord.

Psalm 31:24
Watch

Vigils  (Traditional hour: late night)

Like nuns and monks at prayer, we can listen in the stillness of the night to hear God’s call.

Opening  Even in the waiting,
God is with me.

Scripture  The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world.

John 1:9

Meditation  What keeps me in the shadows?
What light am I waiting for?

Prayers  Holy One, come this night.
Open my heart to the brightness of your love.
Release my fears and revive my hope, that I may rest well and rise to share your love.
Amen.

Closing  Even in the waiting,
God is with me.
Christmas

For the church, Christmas is a time to celebrate the birth of Jesus in Bethlehem. We celebrate this birth not because Jesus was simply a “good man” but because we believe Jesus was — and is — both the human son of Mary and the divine Son of God. That makes Christmas a time to reflect on a mystery that the church calls the doctrine of the Incarnation. This important theological term comes from the Latin word carne, which means “flesh,” and has to do with the divine taking on human flesh and coming among us in human form.

In one of his Christmas sermons Augustine, the fifth-century bishop of Hippo, described the mystery of the Incarnation this way: “Beloved, our Lord Jesus Christ, the eternal creator of all things, today became our Savior by being born of a mother. Of his own will he was born for us today, in time, so that he could lead us to his Father’s eternity. God became human like us so that we might become God. The Lord of the angels became one of us today so that we could eat the bread of angels.”
Praise

Lauds (Traditional hour: dawn/waking up)

Laudate, omnes gentes, laudate Dominum!
[Sing praises, all people, sing praises to the Lord!]
We greet the new day by praising the Creator
(the ancient name for this hour, Lauds, means “praise”).

Opening
Praise God from the heavens;
sing praise in the heights!
Psalm 148:1

Scripture
The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light.
Isaiah 9:2

Meditation
Where will I seek God’s light today?

Prayers
Open my eyes this day, dear Lord, to see your light in the world.
Accompany me, so that I may walk faithfully and share the light of your love with others. Amen.

Closing
Praise God from the heavens.
Sing praise in the heights!
Discernment

Prime (Traditional hour: morning/start of the day)

As we begin the day, we focus on our calling to live faithfully, for who knows what today holds?

Opening

The Word made flesh makes God known to us.

Prayer

Light of life, you came in flesh, born into human pain and joy, and gave us power to be your children: Grant us faith, O Christ, to see your presence among us, so that all creation may sing new songs of gladness and walk in the way of peace. Amen.

Praise The Song of Mary (Magnificat; Luke 1:46-55)

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in you, O God, my Savior,* for you have looked with favor on your servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed:* you, the Almighty, have done great things for me, and holy is your Name. You have mercy on those who fear you,* from generation to generation. You have shown strength with your arm,* and scattered the proud in their conceit, casting down the mighty from their thrones* and lifting up the lowly. You have filled the hungry with good things* and sent the rich away empty. You have come to the help of your servant Israel,* for you have remembered your promise of mercy, The promise made to our forebears,* to Abraham and his children forever.
Scripture  And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father’s only son, full of grace and truth. From his fullness we have all received grace upon grace. No one has ever seen God. It is God the only Son, who is close to the Father’s bosom, who has made God known.

John 1:14, 16, 18

Meditation  You will know when it is time to bring to birth the new creation. The signs will be all around you, urging, insisting: Now is the time. You have to know just when to bear down and concentrate on one thing only. It takes labor, hard, hard labor to bring to birth something new.

Miriam Therese Winter 25

What is God calling forth from us? How will we labor to birth what God calls for?

Affirmation  We believe in God, the source of love, who created humanity in God’s own image and likeness, who blessed them and asked them to procreate, nurture and preserve God’s creation for prosperity.

We believe in Jesus Christ, God incarnate, who was born of a woman and was a carpenter, who identified himself with women, men and children, transforming them to have life abundantly.

We believe in the Holy Spirit active before creation, who through the ages has inspired Christians without number, who continues to inspire us to usher in the reign of God, where no one is cast out, lonely or bereft. 26
Prayers

Wonderful Counselor, whose glory is beyond our understanding and whose love is beyond measure:
Let us know your presence now.

Mighty God,
whose power girds creation, whose hands cradle the hills, yet whose mercy is boundless:
Let us know your presence now.

Prince of Peace,
whose righteousness is like the strong mountains and whose justice is as the great deep:
Let us know your presence now.

Emmanuel,
whose property it is always to have mercy,
and whose arm is long to save, we lift before you now:

Here, the people may add particular intercessions
or thanksgivings.

Hold all those we love in your unbounded love.
Make us your healing presence in the world.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer

Loving Word of God, you have shown us the fullness of your glory in taking human flesh: Fill us, in our bodily life, with your grace and truth, that our pleasure may be boundless and our integrity complete. Amen.

Going Out

The Word made flesh
makes God known to us.
Wisdom

Terce (Traditional hour: mid-morning)

Having asked for direction and guidance, we pray now to equip ourselves properly for the journey ahead.

Opening

O come, all ye faithful.
Come, let us adore him.

Prayer

O holy Wisdom: Fill us this day with joy, understanding and grace, that we may tell out the wonder of your love; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Praise

Go Tell It on the Mountain
(Music, if desired, may be found in Lift Every Voice and Sing II, #21.)

Refrain:
Go tell it on the mountain, over the hills and everywhere.
Go tell it on the mountain, that Jesus Christ is born.

While shepherds kept their watching o’er silent flocks by night, behold throughout the heavens there shown a holy light. Refrain

The shepherds feared and trembled, when lo! above the earth, Rang out the angel chorus that hailed the Savior’s birth. Refrain

Down in a lowly manger the humble Christ was born, and God sent us salvation that blessed Christmas morn. Refrain Words: John W. Work Jr.

Scripture  But when the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, in order to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as children. So you are no longer a slave, but a child, and if a child, then also an heir, through God.

   Galatians 4:4-5, 7

Meditation  We who are charged with announcing the message of Christ need to learn the incomparable lesson that he taught us by his own example. He taught first of all with his life, and only then did he preach.

   Dom Helder Camara 29

   What are we called to preach with our lives today?

Prayers  Holy Wisdom, you fill us with goodness, and we are grateful:

   Let us show with our lives.

Holy Wisdom, you invite us to serve, and we answer “yes”:

   Let us show with our actions.

Holy Wisdom, you open our eyes to those in need, and we want to be faithful:

   Let us show with our love.

Holy Wisdom, we want to live more deeply in your peace:

   Show us the Way.

   Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

Lord’s Prayer
Prayer  Great Spirit, God, Creator of all, we receive you into our hearts, our minds, our Souls: Grant us Mary’s wisdom to heed the inner voice that we know is you. Guide us to accept your invitation to serve and to do so with strength and courage. Amen.

Going Out  O come, all ye faithful.
Come, let us adore him.
Perseverance and Renewal
Sext (Traditional hour: mid-day)

As we pause to feed our bodies in the middle of the day, we pause also to feed our souls by vowing again to live faithfully.

Opening
All life is interwoven.
All life is gift from God.

Prayer
Giver of life and author of love: Be present at this hour as we pause to rest in your love. Fill us with the memory of your goodness, bless us with the grace of your light, and send us out again with renewed faithfulness to show your love to the world. Amen.

Praise
Love Came Down at Christmas
(Music, if desired, may be found in The Hymnal 1982, #84.)

Love came down at Christmas,
Love all lovely, love divine;
Love was born at Christmas:
Star and angels gave the sign.

Worship we the Godhead,
Love incarnate, love divine;
Worship we our Jesus,
But where for a sacred sign?

Love shall be our token;
Love be yours and love be mine,
Love to God and neighbor,
Love for plea and gift and sign.

Words (alt.): Christina Rossetti
Scripture  But when the goodness and loving-kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but according to his mercy, through the water of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit.

Titus 3: 4-5

Meditation  Grace is often portrayed as “washing away” the things that obscure the essential goodness of life. That light that was in the beginning still glows at the heart of life, but we do not see its full brilliance. … Grace is like a cleansing rain over the landscape of life, followed by a sunlight that restores our vision.

J. Philip Newell 30

Where do we need the grace of renewal right now? How can we offer it to others?

Prayers  God our Savior,
Cleanse from our hearts all that impedes your love.
God our Savior,
Renew in us the desire to live in your grace.
God our Savior,
Fill us again with the will to persevere.
God our Savior, we bless your name and ask your healing love:

Here, the people may add particular thanksgivings and intercessions.

Give us ever-grateful hearts,
To share your love with all.
Hold all the earth in your goodness,
And make us ministers of your gospel.

Lord’s Prayer
Prayer  God of creation, through your great mercy you renew us: Send us now back to the love and labor of this day with joy and compassion in our hearts;
Through Christ our Savior. Amen.

Going Out  All life is interwoven.
All life is a gift from God.
Love

None  (Traditional hour: afternoon)

As shadows lengthen and we are filled by the day’s encounters, we accept again the depth and breadth of God’s grace.

Opening  Little One, born this day:
Savior, Redeemer, Beloved of God.

Prayer  Blessed Savior, in love you came to us as a child:
Enlighten our hearts, that we may more deeply understand the richness of this gift and practice more faithfully your call to give of ourselves in love.
Amen.

Praise

Shengye quing, shengye jing/
Holy Night, Blessed Night

(Music, if desired, may be found in Wonder, Love and Praise, #725.)

Refrain:

Holy night, blessed night.
Stars shine brightly, earth is still,
Hills and valleys, field and woodlands,
all surround the small town Bethlehem.
In a manger Christ the Lord sleeps. Refrain

Angels sing praise, shepherds fear,
Earth and heaven ring with praises,
“Allelulia” all creation sings
Tell the good news: Christ is born now. Refrain

Christ has come down, dwells with us.
Sacrifice, love, peace, and justice shine upon us like the morning sun.
Grace and glory bless the whole world. Refrain
Scripture  As God’s chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness and patience. Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you must also forgive. Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, [and] let the word of God dwell in you richly.

Colossians 3:12-15a, 16a

Meditation  Let us imagine that within us is an extremely rich place, built entirely of gold and precious stones. … [W]ithin us lies something incomparably more precious than what we see outside ourselves. Let’s not imagine that we are hollow inside.

Theresa of Avila 32

What does it mean that God’s love dwells in us?
How might this help us love others?

Prayers  Beloved, we are called to love those in need:
Let us love in truth and action.
Beloved, we are called to be people of peace:
Let us love one another.
Beloved, we are called to be people of healing:
Let us love not only God, but our brothers and sisters, also.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

May we abide in God’s love.
May God’s love abide in us. 33

Lord’s Prayer
Prayer  Savior, Redeemer, Beloved of God: Clothe us in your love, strengthen us to live gently on this earth, give us humility to see all we encounter as precious to you, and teach us to walk with kindness and patience this hour and always. Amen.

Going Out  Little One, born this day:
Savior, Redeemer, Beloved of God.
Forgiveness

Vespers  (Traditional hour: evening/end of the day)

As we turn on lamps at dusk, we greet the evening by welcoming God to abide with us anew.

Opening  The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

Prayer  God our Savior: Meet us in this time and place; focus our hearts on your love, feed the hungry places of our souls, release us from all that resists your grace, and renew our bodies to serve your world. Amen.

Praise  Hark! the Herald Angels Sing

(see Music, if desired, may be found in The Hymnal 1982, #87.)

Hark! the herald angels sing
Glory to the newborn King!
Peace on earth and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled!
Joyful, all ye nations rise,
Join the triumph of the skies;
With the angelic host proclaim
Christ is born in Bethlehem!

Refrain:  Hark! the herald angels sing
Glory to the newborn King!

Words (alt.): Charles Wesley

Scripture  The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him. But to all who received him, he gave power to become children of God.

John 1:9-12
Meditation  Holiness is not an attainment, in any sense of the term, but is a gift of the Word of God. Holiness is not a badge of achievement for a saint, but is wrought in the life, in the very being, of an ordinary person by the will of the Word of God. Holiness ... is the restoration of integrity and wholeness to a person.

William Stringfellow

What do we, needing wholeness, present to God at this hour?

Confession  Word of God,
we confess that we need your wholeness.
We have often looked to outward gifts and measures when what we need is your love in our hearts.
We have often aimed toward what we can achieve or where we stand in relation to others, when what we desire is the integrity your love bestows.
We confess our need for your illumination.
Be our light, O Christ.

Assurance of Pardon
God forgives all our sins and heals all our infirmities.
God lifts us from the low places and sets mercy and love upon us.
God fills us with goodness and renews our lives.
Thanks be to God.
Prayers

For all who are oppressed,
May we proclaim the justice of God’s Kingdom.

For all who hunger,
May we, the Body of Christ, be bread.

For all who weep,
May we offer comfort and joy.

For all who are outcast or in any need or trouble:

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

As we yearn to be the faithful people of God,
May we be people of true and gracious welcome to all. 36

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer

O God, who wonderfully created, and yet more wonderfully restored, the dignity of human nature: Grant that we may share the divine life of him who humbled himself to share our humanity, your Son Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen. 37

Going Out

The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.
Trust

Compline  (Traditional hour: night/bedtime)

We sum up this day with a bedtime prayer to examine our conscience and offer our actions to God.

Opening  Jesus the Word
now dwells among us.

Prayer  Almighty and ever-loving God, you have poured upon us the new light of your incarnate Word:
Grant that this light, enkindled in our hearts, may shine forth in our lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Praise  O Little Town of Bethlehem
(Music, if desired, may be found in The Hymnal 1982, #78 & #79.)

O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep, the silent stars go by;
yet in thy dark streets shineth the everlasting Light;
the hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight.

For Christ is born of Mary; and gathered all above, while mortals sleep, the angels keep their watch of wondering love.
O morning stars, together proclaim the holy birth!
and praises sing to God the King and peace to all on earth.

How silently, how silently, the wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts the blessings of his heaven.
No ear may hear his coming, but in this world of sin, where meek souls will receive him, still the dear Christ enters in.
Where children pure and happy pray to the blessed Child, where misery cries out to thee, Son of the mother mild;
where charity stands watching and faith holds wide the door, the dark night wakes, the glory breaks, and Christmas comes once more.

O holy Child of Bethlehem, descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin and enter in, be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels the great glad tidings tell;
O come to us, abide with us, our Lord Emmanuel!

Words: Phillips Brooks (1835-1893)

Scripture  O God, you will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are fixed on you; for in returning and rest we shall be saved; in quietness and trust shall be our strength.

Isaiah 26: 3, 30:15

Meditation  The frightened shepherds become God’s messengers. They organize, make haste, find others, and speak with them. Do we not all want to become shepherds and catch sight of the angels? I think so. ...Because the angels sing, the shepherds rise, leave their fears behind, and set out for Bethlehem, wherever it is situated these days.

Dorothy Soelle 39

As we lay aside the concerns and fears of this day, where do we need strength and courage to tell God’s good news to others tomorrow?
Prayers

Jesus the Word,
We pray for the confidence of your peace in our lives.
Jesus the Word,
We pray for all those who live amid violence or uproar.
Jesus the Word,
We pray for the earth, knowing we have broken its peace.
Jesus the Word,
We pray for all those in need of good news this night:

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

With the angels and shepherds that first Christmas, O Jesus, the Word made flesh, may we trust in and share the joy of your incarnation.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer

Gracious God, you have redeemed us through Jesus Christ, the firstborn of all creation, whose birth we celebrate as the child of Bethlehem: Bless us with every spiritual blessing, that we may live as your adopted children and witness to your glory with unending praise and thanksgiving. Amen.

Closing

Jesus the Word now dwells among us.
Watch

_Vigils_ (Traditional hour: late night)

Like nuns and monks at prayer, we can listen in the stillness of the night to hear God’s call.

_Opening_ O come, let us worship

_Christ the Lord._

_Scripture_ For a child has been born for us … and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace._

_Isaiah 9:6_

_Meditation_ How is Jesus my counselor, loving parent, strength and/or peace this night?

_Prayers_ Fill us, gentle God, with so great a sense of you in our souls that we never know abandonment, never know despair. Lead us beyond ourselves to become what you were born to be. Never let us be deterred by those who burden us with false expectations. In your holy name, we pray. _Amen._

_Closing_ O come, let us worship

_Christ the Lord._
Epiphany

Epiphany is a Greek word meaning “manifestation, showing forth, revelation.” This feast proclaims our faith that in Jesus, God is revealed to all people — not just to an inner circle or a chosen few, but to all people, in all places, and throughout all time. Christians believe that in the person of Jesus we see who God is, and in the words and actions of Jesus we see God at work in the world. Epiphany marks a series of occasions at which Jesus was revealed to be God’s Son.

The feast of Epiphany and the weeks that follow are a time when we reflect on several “manifestations” of Jesus, as he was recognized as the Messiah (or Christ) by many different people. We hear about Jesus’ baptism in the river Jordan by John the Baptist and the visit of the magi, or wise men, who followed the star to Bethlehem at Jesus’ birth. We share the amazement of the guests at the wedding party at Cana as Jesus performs his first miracle by turning water into fine wine. And at the end of the season we see Jesus’ glory shown to three of his disciples on the mountain as he is transfigured before them in a blaze of light.
Praise

Lauds  (Traditional hour: at dawn/waking up)

Laudate, omnes gentes, laudate Dominum!
[Sing praises, all people, sing praises to the Lord!]
We greet the new day by praising the Creator
(the ancient name for this hour, Lauds, means “praise”).

Opening  Arise, shine, for your light has come.
And the glory of the Lord has dawned upon you.

Scripture  God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light.
And God saw that the light was good.
Genesis 1:3

Meditation  How will I invite God’s love to shine through me today?

Prayer  Brightest and best of the stars of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness and lend us thine aid;
Star of the east, the horizon adorning,
Guide where the infant Redeemer is laid.

Going Out  Arise, shine, for your light has come.
And the glory of the Lord has dawned upon you.
Discernment

Prime (Traditional hour: morning/start of the day)

As we begin the day, we focus on our calling to live faithfully, for who knows what today holds?

Opening Your word is a lamp to our feet and a light for our path.

Prayer Insistent God, by night and day you summon your slumbering people: So stir us with your voice and enlighten our lives with your grace that we give ourselves fully to Christ’s call to mission and ministry. Amen. 42

Praise Psalm 27:1, 5-6, 10-11 43

God is my light and my salvation; whom then shall I fear?

God is the strength of my life; of whom then shall I be afraid?

One thing have I asked of you, O God; one thing I seek:

that I may dwell in your house all the days of my life,

To behold your fair beauty, O God, and to seek you in your temple.

Hearken to my voice, O Most High, when I call; have mercy on me and answer me.

You speak in my heart and say, “Seek my face.”

Your face, O God, will I seek.

Scripture The next day, John again was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he exclaimed, “Look, here is the Lamb of God!” The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, “What are you looking for?”

John 1:35-38
Meditation  The eye of the cormorant is emerald. The eye of the eagle is amber. The eye of the grebe is ruby. The eye of the ibis is sapphire. Four gemstones mirror the minds of birds, birds who mediate between heaven and earth. We miss the eyes of the birds, focusing only on feathers.

Terry Tempest Williams 44

What are we looking for? Where have we failed to look?

Affirmation

We are not alone; we live in God’s world.
We believe in God:
  - who has created and is creating,
  - who has come in Jesus,
  - the Word made flesh,
  - to reconcile and make new,
  - who works in us and others by the Spirit.
We trust in God.
We are called to be the Church:
  - to celebrate God’s presence,
  - to live with respect in creation,
  - to love and serve others,
  - to seek justice and resist evil,
  - to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen,
  - our judge and our hope.
In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us.
We are not alone. Thanks be to God. 45
Prayers

Jesus, you are the light of the world:
May your light open our eyes to see those in need.
Jesus, you are the light of the world:
May the works of our lives demonstrate your love.
Jesus, you are the light of the world:
May your wisdom enlighten our decisions.
Jesus, you are the light of the world,
hear the prayers of our hearts:

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

As you enlighten our lives,
May we be light for others.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer

Open our eyes that we may see.
Incline our hearts that we may desire.
Order our steps that we may follow
the way of your commandments. Amen.

Going Out

Your word is a lamp to our feet and a light for our path.
Wisdom

Terce (Traditional hour: mid-morning)

Having asked for direction and guidance, we pray now to equip ourselves properly for the journey ahead.

Opening Wisdom knows and understands all things and guides us in our actions.

Prayer O God, your Spirit of Wisdom was present at the creation and with Jesus at his baptism: Open our hearts to that same Spirit, and strengthen and guide us to love and serve you and our neighbors; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Praise A Song of the Spirit of Wisdom (Wisdom 7:7-8, 10-14a)

I prayed and understanding was given me; *
   I called on God and the Spirit of Wisdom came to me.
I preferred her to scepters and thrones, *
   and I accounted wealth as nothing in comparison with her.
I loved her more than health or beauty, *
   and I chose to have her rather than light because her radiance never ceases.
In her company, all good things came to me; *
   in her hands, a wealth of true riches.
In all these good things, I rejoiced because Wisdom brings them, *
   but I did not know that she was their mother.
What I learned without selfishness I pass on without reserve; *
   I do not hide her gifts.
For Wisdom is an unerring treasure for mortals: *
   those who receive her are friends with God.
Scripture  Who is wise and understanding among you? Show by your good life that your works are done with gentleness born of wisdom. ... The wisdom from above is first pure, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy. And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace for those who make peace.
James 3:13, 17-18

Meditation  Do not think that saintliness comes from occupation; it depends rather on what one is. The kind of work we do does not make us holy, but we may make it holy.  Meister Eckhart (1260-1329)

What work will we do today?
How will we make it holy?

Prayers  Breath of God, inspire us with your guidance.
Come to us, Holy Spirit, and be present with us.
Wisdom of God, guide us to works of goodness and mercy.
Come to us, Holy Spirit, and be present with us.
Spirit of God, teach us to be faithful.
Come to us, Holy Spirit, and be present with us.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

Lord’s Prayer  Gracious God: give us deeper reverence for the truth and such wisdom in the use of knowledge that your kingdom may be advanced and your name glorified; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Going Out  Wisdom knows and understands all things, and she will guide us in our actions.
Perseverance and Renewal

Sext (Traditional hour: mid-day)

As we pause to feed our bodies in the middle of the day, we pause also to feed our souls by vowing again to live faithfully.

Opening  We long for glory.
Transform us with your glory.

Prayer  Holy One, you know our needs before we ask:
Grant that we may persevere in our prayers for the needs of all creation, and renew our trust in your loving care for us; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Praise  Songs of Thankfulness and Praise
(Music, if desired, may be found in The Hymnal 1982, #135.)

Songs of thankfulness and praise,
Jesus, Lord to you we raise, manifested by the star
to the sages from afar;
branch of royal David’s stem
in your birth at Bethlehem;
anthems be to you addressed,
God in flesh made manifest.

Manifest in Jordan’s stream, Prophet, Priest, and King supreme;
and at Cana, wedding guest,
in your Godhead manifest;
manifest in power divine,
changing water into wine;
anthems be to you addressed,
God in flesh made manifest.

Words (alt.): Christopher Wordsworth (1807-1885)
Scripture  On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee. ... When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, “They have no wine.” And Jesus said to her, “Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come.” His mother said to the servants, “Do whatever he tells you.” ... Jesus said to them, “Fill the jars with water.” [The water became wine.] Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him. John 2: 1-5, 7-11

Meditation  In the name of God, stop a moment, close your work, look around you. Leo Tolstoy 49

What can we let go this hour, and how will it free us to use our gifts with greater joy?

Prayers  When we labor and are laden with worries and cares,

Refresh us, O Christ.

When our hands are not ready to accept help,

Renew our trust, O Christ.

When we grow weary of loving others,

Love us, O Christ.

We offer you the cares of our hearts:

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

As we lift our hopes and joys to you,

Hear us, O Christ. Amen.

Lord’s Prayer
Prayer   O God of steadfast love, at the wedding in Cana, your Son Jesus turned water into wine, delighting all who were there: Transform our hearts by your Spirit, that we may use our gifts to show forth the light of your love as one body in Christ. Amen.

Going Out    We long for glory:
              Transform us with your glory.
Love
None  (Traditional hour: afternoon)

As shadows lengthen, we are filled by the day’s encounters; now, more than ever, we accept the depth and breadth of God’s grace.

Opening  Beloved, we are called to be your children:
May we delight in your love.

Prayer  God, you draw us into your love through baptism:
Teach us to abide in the knowledge of your love and to share that love with all your creation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Praise  You, O Christ 51
You, O Christ, are the One: *
the might and goodness of fatherhood.
You are the One:* the wisdom and kindness of motherhood.
You, O Christ, are the One:
the light and grace of all blessed love; *
you are Trinity; you are Unity.
You, O Christ, are the One; *
the high sovereign goodness of all manner of things.
You are the One who makes us to love;*
you are the One who makes us to long.
You, O Christ, are the One: *
the endless fulfilling of all our true desires.

Scripture  When Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, “This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.”

Matthew 13:15-17
Meditation  I was suddenly overwhelmed with the realization that I loved all those people, that they were mine, and I theirs, that we could not be alien to one another even though we were total strangers. It was like waking from a dream of separateness. ...

Thomas Merton 52

How would our day be different if we could see every person as God’s beloved child?

Prayers  God our Creator and Lover,
    Fill our hearts with your love.
God our Savior and Lord,
    Fill our home with your love.
God our Sustainer and Advocate,
    Fill our community with your love.
God the Holy Trinity,
    Fill all the world with your love.

Here, the people may make particular intercessions and thanksgivings.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer  O God most holy, in Jesus Christ you have laid a foundation upon which to build our Lives: Help to follow your perfect law of love, that we may fulfill it and observe it to the end. Amen. 53

Going Out  Beloved, we are called to be your children:
    May we delight in your love.
Forgiveness

Vespers  (Traditional hour: evening/end of the day)

As we turn on lamps at dusk, we greet the evening by welcoming God to abide with us anew.

Opening
The Savior of the nations has come,
To light our way and heal our wounds.

Prayer
Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life, which you have made known to us in your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Praise
Many Are the Light Beams / Muchos Resplandores
(Music, if desired, may be found in Wonder, Love and Praise, #794.)

Many are the light beams from the one light.
Our one light is Jesus.
Many are the light beams from the one light; we are one in Christ.

Muchos resplandores, sólo una luz;
Es la luz de Cristo.

Muchos resplandores, sólo una luz;
Que nos hace uno.

Many are the branches of the one tree.
Our one tree is Jesus.
Many are the branches of the one tree: we are one in Christ.

Muchas son las ramas, un árbol hay,
y su tronco es Cristo.

Muchas son las ramas, un árbol hay,
y en el somos uno.

Words: Anders Frostenson (1906-2006); trans.: Pablo Sosa (b.1933)
Scripture  On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

Matthew 2:11-12

Meditation  The wise men cannot return to their own country by the same way they used to come to Bethlehem. While they cannot go the same route because of Herod, we cannot go the same way once we have met Christ. We emerge from our encounter with Christ as changed people. We cannot follow the same path as before. Like the wise men, we must seek out Christ, but we will always leave as transformed people.

Richard Meux Benson

Where do we seek transformation? Where do we need to offer another way to someone else?

Confession  Holy One, we encounter you in our lives and try to follow faithfully, but so often we get lost or turn away.

We try to love our neighbors and ourselves, and even, by your grace, to love our enemies,

but we fail.

We take the wrong path and stray from the way of your love.

Forgive us, Lord, and guide us back to you.

Assurance of Pardon

We turn to you, God of Love, and we accept your grace.

We accept your pardon.

We accept the gift of a new path, through Christ our Lord. Amen.
Prayers

Among the lowly you were born.
   Lord Jesus, save us.
The wise and powerful bowed down before you.
   Lord Jesus, teach us.
You have come to lead us to holiness.
   Lord Jesus, guide us.
You ask us to call on you, and so we offer these prayers:

Here, the people may make particular intercessions and thanksgivings.

Lord Jesus, hear us.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer

Jesus, you revealed yourself to the world so that all people might look to you and be saved: may we know the wholeness that you bring. Be our light in the darkness that we may not stumble, and lift us up again if we fall; all this we ask in your name.
Amen.

Going Out

The Savior of the nations has come to light our way and heal our wounds.
Trust

Compline  (Traditional hour: night/bedtime)

We sum up this day with a bedtime prayer to examine our conscience and offer our actions to God.

Opening

Do not fear, for I have redeemed you.
You call us by name, and we are yours.

Prayer

O God of all the prophets, you knew us and chose us before you formed us in the womb: Fill us with faith that speaks your word, hope that does not disappoint, and love that bears all things for your sake, until that day when we shall know you fully, even as we are known by you. Amen.

Praise

The Song of Simeon (Nunc dimittis; Luke 2: 29-32)
Lord, you now have set your servant free * to go in peace as you have promised;
For these eyes of mine have seen the Savior, * whom you have prepared for all the world to see:
A Light to enlighten the nations, *
and the glory of your people Israel.

Scripture

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white. ... Suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, “This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!” When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Get up and do not be afraid.”

Matthew 17:1-2, 5-8
Meditation
Candelmas
With certitude
Simeon opened ancient arms to infant light.
Decades
before the cross, the tomb and the new life, he knew
new life.
What depth of faith he drew on, turning illumined
towards deep night.

Denise Levertov

How will we let go of fear and draw on our faith as Simeon did?

Prayer
Son of God, in the light of faith, we offer our prayers:
   May we follow closely your lead.
For all who face the darkness with fear this night,
   Redeem our fears with hope and confidence.
For all the places in this world that yearn for new life,
   Grant the light of your saving grace.
For all the joys and concerns of our hearts:
   Here, the people may offer particular intercessions and thanksgivings.

Hear us, teach us, restore us,
   And may your light shine in our hearts and in all the world.

The Lord’s Prayer
Prayer  Be our light in the darkness, O Lord, and in your great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night; for the love of your only Son, our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen. 59

Closing  Do not fear, for I have redeemed you. You call us by name, and we are yours.
Watch

Vigils  (Traditional hour: late night)

Like nuns and monks at prayer, we can listen in the stillness of the night to hear God’s call.

Opening

Darkness is not dark to you;
the night is as bright as the day.

Scripture

O tarry, and await God’s pleasure; be strong, and let your heart take comfort;
Wait patiently for God.

Psalm 27:18

Meditation  *

*How does God’s faithfulness sustain me?
How do I remain faithful?*

Prayer

Guide us waking, O God,
and guard us sleeping,
that, awake, we may watch with Christ,
and, asleep, we may rest in peace.

Amen.

Closing

Darkness is not dark to you;
the night is as bright as the day.
Lent

Figuring out how to keep a holy Lent can be a challenge, but if we move beyond the popular conceptions (and misconceptions), Lent holds the possibility for real change — or to use the church’s word, conversion — in our lives, as well as for rich and lasting spiritual growth. (The word “lent” comes from the Anglo-Saxon word lencton, referring to the springtime of the year when the days grow longer and warmer and brighter.)

Lent emerged in our history as a season of final preparation for those who would be baptized at the Great Vigil of Easter. The entire Christian community was highly invested in walking alongside those who were about to commit their lives to Christ. In time, the season took on some extra layers of meaning, and many people now associate it with listening for a deeper awareness of our own sin — how we fall short of the ideals God sets before us — and the need for ongoing repentance and amendment of life.

That said, joy in the new life we have found in the Christian faith should never be overwhelmed by our struggles to live out that faith or our awareness of the ways we fall short. We can see Lent as an opportunity to deepen our spiritual lives. In Lent we step back and consider the ways we need to repent, to turn around — to be converted.
During Lent we as individual Christians and as a church — the Body of Christ — consider our spiritual health. How are we living the gospel in our lives, our homes, our churches, our towns, our schools, our places of work? What areas of growth or signs of renewal should we celebrate with gratitude and joy? In what ways have we fallen short, grown stagnant or cold-hearted, or failed to love God by embracing new life when we encounter it? These are the kinds of questions we ask ourselves during the weeks of Lent.
Praise

Lauds (Traditional hour: at dawn/waking up)

Laudate, omnes gentes, laudate Dominum!
[Sing praises, all people, sing praises to the Lord!]
We greet the new day by praising the Creator
(the ancient name for this hour, Lauds, means “praise”).

Opening
Bless the Lord,
O my soul.

Scripture
O God, you are my God; eagerly I seek you.
Psalm 63:1

Meditation
God has given to the earth the breath that feeds it.
God’s breath vibrates in yours, in your voice. It is the breath of God that you breathe.
Theophilus of Antioch

How will God breathe through me this day?

Prayer
Lord, you beat in our hearts and thrive in every cell of our bodies.
All that we are leaps for delight. Wherever we go,
we know we shall find you there. Amen.

Going Out
Bless the Lord,
O my soul.
Discernment

Prime  (Traditional hour: morning/start of the day)

As we begin the day, we focus on our calling to live faithfully, for who knows what today holds?

Opening  Show our hearts your way, and we shall follow.

Prayer  O God of love, you are the true sun of the world, evermore risen and never going down: We pray you to shine in our hearts and drive away the darkness of sin and the mist of error. We pray that we may, this day and all our lives long, walk without stumbling in the way you have prepared for us, which is Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God in glory everlasting. Amen. 65

Praise  Lead Me, Guide Me
(Music, if desired, may be found in Lift Every Voice and Sing II, #194.)

Lead me, guide me along the way, for if you lead me, I cannot stray.
Lord, let me walk each day with thee.
Lead me, O Lord, lead me.

I am lost if you take your hand from me, I am blind without thy light to see.
Lord, just always let me thy servant be.
Lead me, O Lord, lead me.

Lead me, guide me along the way, for if you lead me, I cannot stray.
Lord, let me walk each day with thee.
Lead me, O, Lord, lead me.

Words and Music: Doris Akers (1923-1995) 66
Scripture

Is not this the fast that I chose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin? Then shall your light break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard. Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, “Here I am.”

Isaiah 58:6-9a

Meditation

We live in a time of struggle between truth and lies, between sincerity, which almost no one believes in still, and hypocrisy and intrigue. Let’s not be afraid, brothers and sisters; let’s try to be sincere, to love truth; let’s try to model ourselves on Christ Jesus. It is time for us to have a great sense of selection, of discernment.

Oscar Romero 67

How will we practice Christ Jesus’ way of love, justice, and truth this day?

Affirmation

We believe that Jesus took the form of a slave, so we commit ourselves to serve others.

We believe that God is love, so we commit ourselves to reconciliation.

We believe that Jesus gives us his Spirit, so we commit ourselves to his work in the world.

We believe that God is the light of life, so we commit ourselves to bearing God’s light in our world.

We believe that the Spirit speaks through us, so we commit ourselves to proclaim the good news of abundant life in the world God loves.
Prayers
Loving God, in our faith, we pray:
For reconciliation between the violated and the violent,
    That we may rest in your peace.
For generosity between rich and poor people everywhere,
    That we may share the abundance of your creation.
For the growth of love between broken peoples and nations,
    That we may shape our common life as your kingdom.
For mutual respect between immigrants and insiders,
    That we may welcome your image in all who come to us.
For protection for the weak and humility for the strong,
    That we may serve others as you serve us in Christ.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

For all the joys and concerns of our hearts,
    That we may live with gladness and trust.

Lord’s Prayer
Prayer
Heavenly Father, in you we live and move and have our being: We humbly pray you so to guide and govern us by your Holy Spirit, that in all the cares and occupations of our life we may not forget you, but may remember that we are ever walking in your sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. 68

Going Out
Show our hearts your way, and we shall follow.
Wisdom

Terce (Traditional hour: mid-morning)

Having asked for direction and guidance, we pray now to equip ourselves properly for the journey ahead.

Opening

Know the grace of God and live joyfully this day of salvation.

Prayer

God of heaven and earth, your wisdom stretches around the world, ordering all things for good:
Free us from anxiety and understand us like a friend, that we might share the good news of your friendship with all people; through the Word made flesh, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Praise

Come, heavenly comforter
Come, heavenly comforter and spirit of truth,
Blowing everywhere and filling all things.
Treasury of blessings and giver of life:
Come and abide in us;
cleanse us from every impurity,
and, in your great goodness, save us. 69

Scripture

As we work together with Christ, we urge you not to accept the grace of God in vain. For he says, “At an acceptable time I have listened to you, and on a day of salvation I have helped you.” See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation!

2 Corinthians 6:1-2
Meditation  We can all please God. We must only choose well. Many go abroad to study, pursuing knowledge far from home, but the kingdom of God is always here and now, wherever you are, within you. Precisely because the kingdom is within, and God is our friend, our salvation only requires that we be willing.

_Athanasius of Alexandria_

In what ways are we willing to accept the wisdom of God’s guidance today?

Prayers

Christ in my mind

that I may see what is true;

Christ in my mouth

that I may speak with power;

Christ in my heart

that I may learn to be loved;

Christ in my hands

that I may work with tenderness;

Christ in my soul

that I may know my desire;

Christ in my arms

that I may reach without fear;

Christ in my face

*that I may shine with God._

*Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings._

Lord’s Prayer
Prayer  Wisdom is brilliant; she never fades. By those who love her, she is easily seen; by those who seek her, she is readily found. She is a breath of God’s power, an image of God’s goodness, the eternal light and mirror of God’s glory. Now let Wisdom do all things, renew all things, and pass into holy souls everywhere to make them friends of God.

Amen.

Going Out  Know the grace of God and live joyfully this day of salvation.
Perseverance and Renewal

Sext (Traditional hour: mid-day)

As we pause to feed our bodies in the middle of the day, we pause also to feed our souls by vowing again to live faithfully.

Opening
Renew and strengthen us, eternal God, as we prepare for resurrection.

Prayer
Merciful God, your strength and courage pour forth to sustain the witness of your faithful people: Awaken in us the humility to serve wherever creation is broken and needy, that we may follow in the way of our brother, Jesus, die as he did to all that separates us from you, and be raised, as he was, to new life. Amen. 73

Praise
A Song of the Wilderness (Isaiah 35:1-4) 74
The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad, *
the desert shall rejoice and blossom;
It shall blossom abundantly, *
and rejoice with joy and singing.
They shall see the glory of the Lord, *
the majesty of our God.
Strengthen the weary hands, *
and make firm the feeble knees.
Say to the anxious, “Be strong, do not fear! *
Here is your God, coming with judgment to save you.”
Scripture  “Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?” And the king will answer them, “Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.”  Matthew 25:37-40

Meditation  Do you wish to honor the body of the Savior? Do not despise it when it is naked. Do not honor it in church with silk vestments, while outside you are leaving it numb with cold and naked. He who said, “This is my body,” and made it so by his word, is the same that said, “You saw me hungry and you gave me no food. As you did it not to the least of these, you did it not to me.” Honor him then by sharing your property with the poor, for what God needs is not golden chalices, but golden souls.  John Chrysostom 75

Who are the hungry and naked in our daily world, and how will we relieve their suffering?
Prayers

God of hope, help us who struggle in our daily work.

When we lose our purpose,

renew our hope in you.

When we bow to hatred,

renew our trust in you.

When we despair of bliss,

renew our joy in you.

When we take offense at others,

renew our life in you.

When we compromise our values,

renew our faith in you.

When we cherish regrets,

renew our freedom in you.

When we surrender to despair,

renew our hope in you.

As we accept your renewing love, we offer our prayers to you:

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

Hold us, and all people, in your loving care,

and may we be hope for others.

Lord’s Prayer

God of hope, from you come every blessing and all peace: Show us that, in the midst of our struggles, you are with us. Give us the abundance of your grace that we may do the work you give us to do and that we may be for the world a sign of your presence; through Christ, the Way and the Truth.

Amen.

Going Out

Renew and strengthen us, eternal God, as we prepare for resurrection.
Love

None (Traditional hour: afternoon)

As shadows lengthen, we are filled by the day’s encounters; now, more than ever, we accept the depth and breadth of God’s grace.

Opening

May our sacrifice be love as we practice mercy on earth.

Prayer

God of love, the day is long and its burden is heavy:
Give us grace to see your hand at work in the lives of those around us so that adversity will not overwhelm us, nor resentments possess us. Remain with us, for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Savior.

Amen.

Praise

Love Bade Me Welcome

Love bade me welcome; yet my soul drew back,
Guilty of dust and sin.
But quick-eye’d Love, observing me grow slack
From my first entrance in,
Drew nearer to me, sweetly questioning
If I lack’d anything.
A guest, I answer’d, worthy to be here:
Love said, You shall be he.
I, the unkind, ungrateful? Ah, my dear,
I cannot look on Thee.
Love took my hand and smiling did reply,
Who made the eyes, but I?
Truth, Lord, but I have marred them: let my shame
Go where it doth deserve.
And know you not, says Love, Who bore the blame?
My dear, then I will serve.
You must sit down, says Love, and taste my meat.
So I did sit and eat.

George Herbert 76
Scripture  Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God.

I John 4:7

Meditation  We cannot know whether we love God although there may be strong reason for thinking so, but there can be no doubt about whether we love our neighbor or not. Be sure that, in proportion as you advance in affection for sisters and brothers, you are increasing your love of God.

Teresa of Avila 77

Who is hard to love just now? What would it cost us to love that one?

Prayers  O God, you beckon us with promises of love; Fulfill our desire for you. You pursue us even when we flee from you; Bring us to our right minds. You delight in us and show us your compassion; Make us mindful of the deep need in the world. Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings. You give us the gift of your unbounded love; Pour out your love on all the world.

Lord's Prayer

Prayer  Merciful God, return us now to working and relating in our world; return us, stimulated by hope, strengthened by faith, and directed by love. Thus, we are heartened to reconcile all people, created, redeemed, and sustained by you. In the name of Christ. Amen. 78

Going Out  May our sacrifice be love as we practice mercy on earth.
Forgiveness

Vespers  (Traditional hour: evening/end of the day)

As we turn on lamps at dusk, we greet the evening by welcoming God to abide with us anew.

Opening  Wherever we stray, lead us back to the rock of your love.

Prayer  Holy God, in love you created us and called our being “good.” With open hearts, we praise you for your unfailing love. With open hands, we offer you our labors. Bless and guide us now as our day turns toward evening; through your grace, may we share with others the love we receive from you. In the name of God our Creator, Jesus our brother, and the Spirit who lights our way. Amen.

Song of praise

A Song of Christ’s Goodness 79

Jesus, as a mother you gather your people to you; * you are gentle with us as a mother with her children. Often you weep over our sins and our pride, * tenderly you draw us from hatred and judgment. You comfort us in sorrow and bind up our wounds, * in sickness you nurse us and with pure milk you feed us. Jesus, by your dying, we are born to new life; * by your anguish and labor we come forth in joy. Despair turns to hope through your sweet goodness; * through your gentleness, we find comfort in fear. Your warmth gives life to the dead, * your touch makes sinners righteous. Lord Jesus, in your mercy, heal us; * in your love and tenderness, remake us. May your love prepare us for the beauty of heaven.

Anselm of Canterbury
Scripture  Listen to me, you that pursue righteousness, you that seek the Lord. Look to the rock from which you were hewn, and to the quarry from which you were dug. For the Lord will comfort Zion; he will comfort all her waste places, and will make her wilderness like Eden, her desert like the garden of the Lord; joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the voice of song.

Isaiah 51:1, 3

Meditation  This only do I ask of your extreme kindness. That you convert me wholly to you and you allow nothing to prevent me from wending my way to you.

Saint Augustine

What will we set aside now that blocks our way to God?

Confession  Lord Jesus, you come into our lives when we are least prepared for you. As you enfolded your betrayers, so embrace us who struggle to love. Reconcile us with our sisters and brothers, and, for the sake of your love, forgive us all our sins.

Assurance of Pardon  Psalm 103:11-13

As far as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is your loving response to those who are humble; so far does your enduring strength uphold those who face the darkness within. As parents are concerned for their children, so you come to those who reach out in faith.
Prayers

For all we have accomplished this day,
we bless God’s name.
For now, when we turn from labor to home,
we bless God’s name.
For those tasks we left undone this day,
we invite God’s love.
For those wounds we gave or received this day,
we invite God’s love.
For our hopes and concerns for tomorrow,
we invite God’s love.
For the gift of our presence this hour,
we seek God’s grace.
For trust that God’s love is all we need,
we seek God’s grace.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

For these praises and preoccupations of our hearts,
we find our hope in God.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer

Holy One, we bless your name and thank you for the gift of this day:
May the Light of the world guide us, the Life of the world refresh us, and the Hope of the world be our companion, that we may be the reconciling power of Christ in the world. We ask this for your mercy’s sake. Amen.

Going Out

Wherever we stray,
lead us back to the rock of your love.
Trust

_Compline_ (Traditional hour: night/bedtime)

We sum up this day with a bedtime prayer to examine our conscience and offer our actions to God.

Opening

Give us the grace to rely on you:
_may we always trust in your goodness._

Prayer

Enduring presence, goal and guide, you go before and await our coming. Only our thirst compels us beyond complaint to conversation, beyond rejection to relation. Pour your love into our hearts that, refreshed and renewed, we may invite others to the living water given to us in Jesus Christ our Lord.
_Amen._

Praise

_O God of gentle strength_

(Music, if desired, may be found in Wonder, Love and Praise, #s770 & 771.)

O God of gentle strength, your love embraces me. Within the sureness of your care my heart rests willingly.

Your waters of rebirth have claimed us as your own.
As members of one body, we shall never be alone.
And when life’s challenges eclipse our minds with doubt, let holy wisdom spark a flame to drive the darkness out.
Where will the journey lead? The path may be obscure.
But promised hope of things unseen will keep our footing sure.

Words: Patricia B. Clark (b. 1938)
Scripture  Thus says the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel: In returning and rest you shall be saved; in quietness and confidence shall be your strength. Therefore the Lord waits to be gracious to you; therefore he will rise up to show mercy to you. For the Lord is a God of justice; blessed are all those who wait for the Lord.
Isaiah 30:15a, 18

Meditation  The birds have vanished into the sky, and now the last cloud drains away.
We sit together, the mountain and me, until only the mountain remains.
Li Po, 8th-century poet

What do we need to trust this fully in God’s grace?

Prayer  Patient and compassionate God,
We so want to trust in your love.
Hear our longing.
We hope for healing in our lives and the lives of others:
Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.
Hear our prayers.
Heed our holy desires.
We confess our impatience and anxiety.
We seek your grace.

The Lord’s Prayer
Prayer  O Lord and Ruler of our life: Deliver us from the spirit of sloth, idle talk, faint-heartedness, and lust for power; and grant unto us, your servants, a spirit of integrity, humility, patience and love. Sovereign God, grant us the ability to see our own faults and not to judge another’s; for you are blessed to the ages of ages. Amen.

Closing  Give us the grace to rely on you:
may we always trust in your goodness.
Watch

Vigils (Traditional hour: late night)

Like nuns and monks at prayer, we can listen in the stillness of the night to hear God’s call.

Opening Be present with me, Holy One, as I watch with you.

Scripture O my strength, I will watch for you; for you, O God, are my stronghold.

Psalm 59:9

Meditation Where do I need God’s strength?

Prayer Keep watch, dear Lord, with those who work, or watch, or weep this night, and give your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend the sick, Lord Christ; give rest to the weary, bless the dying, soothe the suffering, pity the afflicted, shield the joyous; and all for your love’s sake. Amen. 85

Closing Be present with me, Holy One, as I watch with you.
Holy Week

The theme of Holy Week is Jesus’ passion: his suffering and death on the cross. The rites of Holy Week are at the very heart of the Christian year, indeed of our Christian faith. And for many of us they are, year after year, the most meaningful and life-changing services of the church.

It is vital to keep a broad perspective during this week. We walk through the days of Jesus’ suffering and death because we believe they had a purpose — the salvation of the world. We believe Jesus’ death conquered death itself for us all: that is the only reason why the Friday on which he died can be called “good.” Even while we are sobered by the solemn reading of the gospel stories describing Jesus’ death and deeply saddened by the ongoing violence in our world, from that day in Jerusalem to this Good Friday, we hold on to the faith that in Jesus God has brought about a new creation, and death itself has been conquered. “We have been buried with him by baptism into death,” wrote the apostle Paul soon after Jesus’ death, “so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life” (Romans 6:4).
Praise

Lauds (Traditional hour: dawn/waking up)

Laudate, omnes gentes, laudate Dominum!
[Sing praises, all people, sing praises to the Lord!]
We greet the new day by praising the Creator (the ancient name for this hour, Lauds, means “praise”).

Opening Come darkness or light
I call on your name, holy Lord.

Scripture I love you, O God, because you have heard the voice of my supplication. Psalm 116:1a

Meditation What do I offer God at this hour?

Prayer O Holy One, whatever comes this day, let me seek you with confidence and trust. Amen.

Going Out Come darkness or light,
I call on your name, holy Lord.
Discernment

Prime  (Traditional hour: morning/start of the day)

As we begin the day, we focus on our calling to live faithfully, for who knows what today holds?

Opening  You have called us in righteousness.
Let us respond with justice.

Prayer  God of steadfast love, light of the blind and liberator of the oppressed, we see your holy purpose in the tender compassion of Jesus, who calls us into new and living friendship with you: May we who take shelter in the shadow of your wings be filled with the grace of his tender caring; may we who stumble in selfish darkness see your glory in the light of his self-giving; we ask this through him whose suffering is victorious, Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen. 86

Song of praise

You Laid Aside Your Rightful Reputation
(Music, if desired, may be found in Wonder, Love and Praise #734.)

You laid aside your rightful reputation and gave no heed to what the world might say; served as a slave and laid aside your garments to wash the feet of those who walked your way.

You touched the leper, ate with those rejected, received the worship of a woman’s tears: You shed the pride that keeps us from the freedom to love our neighbor, laying down our fears.

Help us to follow, Jesus, where you lead us to love, to serve, our own lives laying down; to walk your way of humble, costly service, a cross its end, a ring of thorns its crown.
Draw us to love you and with your love transform us:
the love we’ve seen, the love we’ve touched and known;
enlarge our hearts and with compassion fill us
to love, to serve, to follow you alone.
Words: Rosalind Brown (b. 1953) 87

Scripture  Here is my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights;
I have put my spirit upon him; he will bring forth justice to the nations.
He will not cry or lift up his voice, or make it heard in the street;
a bruised reed he will not break, and a dimly burning wick he will not quench;
he will faithfully bring forth justice.  Isaiah 42:1-4

Meditation  We must get ready then. Our journey requires a rejuvenated faith. We must set high standards. We must rely on the gospel to guide us. It will help us to follow Christ and grow better acquainted with him so we are prepared to live with Jesus in his heavenly kingdom.  from The Rule of St. Benedict

Where does our faith need rejuvenation today?
How will we let the gospel guide us?

Affirmation  As children of God, we affirm:
That God, who is Love, created all and called it good,
that God is present with all of creation, and that,
in darkness and in light, God is faithful;
therefore we, too, seek to be faithful.
That Jesus came to show us Love with a human face, that he taught justice and reconciliation and suffered on our behalf, and that through his faithful example, he embodies hope;
therefore we, too, seek to be people of justice, reconciliation, and hope.

That the Holy Spirit guides and accompanies us, that this same Spirit offers wisdom and discernment, and that, when we are open, the Spirit can always find a way;
therefore, we seek to be people filled with God’s Spirit:
discerning, loving and transforming our world. Amen.

Prayers

Jesus, faithful servant of God,
sometimes it is difficult for us to know how to be faithful:
Help us discern your will and follow you with gladness.

Jesus, faithful servant of God,
in this most holy of weeks, we see the brokenness of our world:
Help us be people who faithfully bring forth justice.

Jesus, faithful servant of God,
we know the world longs for healing:
Help us be people of hope and bearers of light.

Jesus, faithful servant of God,
we want to be the people you long for us to be:
Help us walk in your way of love.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.
Lord’s Prayer

Prayer Loving God, as we seek to know and follow you more faithfully, we pray you will open and fill our hearts with the love and knowledge of your Son, Jesus. May we see ever more clearly what it is you call us to, and may we respond with lives of joy and justice. Amen.

Going Out You have called us in righteousness. Let us respond with justice.
Wisdom

Terce (Traditional hour: mid-morning)

Having asked for direction and guidance, we pray now to equip ourselves properly for the journey ahead.

Opening

Teach us to seek your wisdom as we embrace the folly of your love.

Prayer

Holy and immortal God, from earliest times you have named us and called us into Discipleship: Teach us to follow the One whose light scatters the darkness of our world, that we may walk as children of the light. Amen.

Praise

Faithful Cross, Above All Other
(Crux fidelis inter omnes)
(Music, if desired, may be found in Wonder, Love and Praise, #737; The Hymnal 1982, #166.)

Faithful cross, above all other: one and only noble tree! None in foliage, none in blossom, none in fruit thy peer may be: sweetest wood and sweetest iron, sweetest weight is hung on thee.

Bend thy boughs, O tree of glory! Thy relaxing sinews bend; for awhile the ancient rigor that thy birth bestowed, suspend; and the King of heavenly beauty gently on thy arms extend.

Words: Venantius Honorius Fortunatus (540-600?); trans. after John Mason Neale (1818-1866)

Scripture

For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved, it is the power of God. For it is written, “I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart. For God’s foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God’s weakness is stronger than human strength.

1 Corinthians 1: 18-19, 25

Meditation To make of his story something that could neither startle, nor shock, nor terrify, nor excite, nor inspire a living soul is to crucify the Son of God afresh.

Dorothy L. Sayers (1893-1957) 89

Where do we seek courage and wisdom to proclaim the gospel in its fullness?

Prayers God of mercy,
Make us wise with your foolish love.
God of salvation,
Open our eyes again to see the power of your grace.
God of all who seek to follow,
Guide us in your faithful way.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer Christ our Lord, you refused the way of domination and died the death of a slave:
May we also refuse to lord it over those who are subject to us, but share the weight of authority so that all may be empowered; in your name. Amen. 90

Going Out Teach us to seek your wisdom.
as we embrace the folly of your love.
Perseverance and Renewal

Sext (Traditional hour: mid-day)

As we pause to feed our bodies in the middle of the day, we pause also to feed our souls by vowing again to live faithfully.

Opening

Be pleased, O God, to deliver us.
Make haste, Holy One, to help us. (Psalm 70:1)

Prayer

Blessed Savior, at this hour you hung upon the cross, stretching out your loving arms:
Grant that all the peoples of the earth may look to you and be saved; for your tender mercies’ sake.
Amen. 91

Praise

Take My Hand, Precious Lord
(Music, if desired, may be found in Lift Every Voice and Sing II, #106; Wonder, Love and Praise, #800.)

Precious Lord, take my hand, lead me on, let me stand,
I am tired, I am weak, I am worn;
through the storm, through the night, lead me on to the light, take my hand, precious Lord, lead me on.

When my way grows drear, precious Lord, linger near, when my life is almost gone; hear my cry, hear my call, hold my hand, lest I fall, take my hand, precious Lord, lead me on.
When the darkness appears and the night draws near,
and the day is past and gone;
at the river I stand,
guide my feet, hold my hand,
take my hand, precious Lord, lead me on.

Words: Thomas A. Dorsey (1899-1993)

For I [Paul] received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night when he was betrayed, took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, “This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.” For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes. 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

The soul must live in hope.
Beatrijs of Nazareth (1200-1268), Seven Manners of Living

Where do we need nourishment and hope this hour? This week?

Precious Lord, you know what it means to carry a heavy load:
Help us entrust our burdens to you.
Holy Lord, you walked many a winding road:
Help us see all parts of our lives as sacred.
Gracious Lord, so many hunger and thirst in our world:
Strengthen us for service, so we may be bread and wine for others.
Precious Lord, as we return to the work of this day:
Take our hands and lead us on.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions
or thanksgivings.
Lord’s Prayer

Prayer Eternal God, in the sharing of a meal, your Son established a new covenant for all people, and in the washing of feet he showed us the dignity of service: Grant that by the power of the Holy Spirit these signs of our life in faith may speak again in our hearts, feed our spirits, and refresh our bodies.

Amen. ^92

Going Out Be pleased, O God, to deliver us.

Make haste, Holy One, to help us.

Psalm 70:1
Love

None (Traditional hour: afternoon)

As shadows lengthen, we are filled by the day’s encounters; now, more than ever, we accept the depth and breadth of God’s grace.

Opening

You lavish love upon us. Make us people of extravagant love.

Prayer

Holy God, lover of our souls, we come before you as people created by and for love: Gather us in this time to hear again your word of love, to renew our trust in its breadth and depth. In the sacrifice of your love for us, may we find renewal and be your love in the world. Amen.

Praise

My Song Is Love Unknown

(Music, if desired, may be found in The Hymnal 1982, #458.)

My song is love unknown, my Savior’s love to me, love to the loveless shown that they might lovely be. O who am I that for my sake my Lord should take frail flesh, and die?

He came from his blest throne salvation to bestow, but men made strange, and none the longed for Christ would know. But O my friend, my friend indeed, who at my need his life did spend.

Sometimes they strew his way, and his strong praises sing, resounding all the day hosannas to their King. then “Crucify!” is all their breath, and for his death they thirst and cry.
Why, what hath my Lord done? What makes this rage and spite? He made the lame to run, he gave the blind their sight. Sweet injuries! Yet they at these themselves displease, and ’gainst him rise.

Here might I stay and sing, no story so divine; never was love, dear Christ, never was grief like thine. this is my friend, in whose sweet praise I all my days could gladly spend.

Words (alt): Samuel Crossman (1624-1683)

Scripture Six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at table with him. Mary took a pound of costly perfume made with pure nard, anointed Jesus’ feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. John 12:1-3

Meditation Look what happens to the scale when love holds it. It stops working. Kafir (c.1440-1518)

Where might we “waste” love this week?
Prayers

Jesus, Holy One of God,
You embodied love for us.
Jesus, Holy One of God,
You accepted love from all who offered.
Jesus, Holy One of God,
We acknowledge our need for your love.

Teach us, we pray:
The courage to both give and receive love,
the humility to admit when we have not loved well, and the faith to trust that your love is enough.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions
or thanksgivings.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer

Holy Spirit, fill us with godly love.
Free us from all that resists loving and being loved.
Empower us to love as Jesus did.
In his gracious name we pray. Amen.

Going Out

You lavish love upon us.
Make us people of extravagant love.
Forgiveness

Vespers  (Traditional hour: evening/end of day)

As we turn on lamps at dusk, we greet the evening by welcoming God to abide with us anew.

Opening  In the fullness of our humanity, heal us, gracious Savior.

Prayer  Troubled God, in every generation you call your people to contend against the brutality of sin and betrayal: Keep us steadfast even in our fear and uncertainty, so that we may follow where Jesus has led the way. Amen. 94

Praise  As in That Upper Room, You Left Your Seat
(Music, if desired, may be found in Wonder, Love and Praise, #s 729, 730.)

As in that upper room you left your seat and took a towel and chose a servant’s part, so for today, Lord, wash again my feet, who in your mercy died to cleanse my heart.

I bow before you, all my sin confessed, to hear again the words of love you said; and at your table, as your honored guest, I take and eat the true and living bread.

So in remembrance of your life laid down I come to praise you for your grace divine; saved by your cross, and subject to your reign, strengthened for service by the bread and wine.

Words (alt): Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926) 95
Scripture  At that moment, while Peter was still speaking, the cock crowed. The Lord turned and looked at Peter. Then Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, “Before the cock crows today, you will deny me three times.” And Peter went out and wept bitterly.

Luke 22: 60b-62

Meditation  [God says]: “No matter what you have done, I love you for your own sake. Come to me with your misery and your sins, with your trouble and your needs, and with all your longing to be loved. I stand at the door of your heart and knock. Open to me, for I thirst for you.”

Mother Teresa (1910-1997) 96

Where do we long to be loved and forgiven at this hour?

Confession  We are human: we strive to love, but we often fail. Jesus, we confess that we do not always answer when you call us to bear your light in the world. Although we long for love, too often we fail to accept it or to offer it. Help us let go of our failings. Renew our hearts. Fill us anew with your love. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon  God says to us, “I love you for your own sake.” Know that you are loved and forgiven. Jesus invites us to pick up our lives anew And walk in love.
Prayers

God of extravagant love,
Transform us with the freedom of forgiveness.
God of unbounded, sacrificial love,
Teach us to give ourselves in joyful service.
God whose love persists even in the darkest hour,
Deepen our faith, renew our spirits and strengthen our confidence in you, that we may truly learn to walk in self-giving love.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer

Christ our victim, whose beauty was disfigured upon the cross: Open wide your arms to embrace our tortured world, that we may not turn away our eyes, but abandon ourselves to your mercy.

Amen. 97

Going Out

In the fullness of our humanity,
heal us, gracious Savior.
Trust

Compline  (Traditional hour: night/bedtime)

We sum up this day with a bedtime prayer to examine our conscience and offer our actions to God.

Opening  Into your hands we entrust our souls, for you have redeemed us, O God of truth.

Prayer  Christ our God, your love is poured out in death for our sakes: Hold us in your embrace as we wait for Easter’s dawn. Comfort us with the promise that no power on earth, not even death itself, can separate us from your love; and strengthen us to wait until you are revealed to us in all your risen glory. Amen. 98

Praise  I Want Jesus to Walk with Me
(Music, if desired, may be found in Lift Every Voice and Sing II, #70; Wonder, Love and Praise, #805.)

I want Jesus to walk with me;
I want Jesus to walk with me
All along my pilgrim journey.
Lord, I want Jesus to walk with me.

In my trials, Lord walk with me;
In my trials, Lord walk with me;
When the shades of life are falling,
Lord, I want Jesus to walk with me.

In my sorrows, Lord walk with me;
In my sorrows, Lord walk with me;
When my heart within is aching,
Lord, I want Jesus to walk with me.

Text: traditional
Scripture  Then Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, “Father, into your hands I commend my spirit.”  Luke 23:46a Meditation  Little by little, God grows us ever more in grace because God wants to be seen and sought. God wants to be awaited and trusted.

Julian of Norwich (1342-1420), Revelations

Jesus entrusted his soul to God’s care. What should we entrust to God this hour?

Prayers  Holy God, friend of the friendless,

Deepen our trust in your faithfulness.

Jesus, our brother, loving even unto death,

Walk with us as we grow in trust and love.

Holy Spirit, source of all life,

Give us eyes that see your glory and hearts that long for your grace.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer  Eternal God, rock and refuge, with roots grown old in the earth, riverbeds run dry, and flowers withered in the field, we wait for revival and release: Abide with us until we come alive in the sunrise of your glory.  Amen.

Closing  Into your hands we entrust our souls, for you have redeemed us, O God of truth.
Watch

Vigils (Traditional hour: late night)

Like nuns and monks at prayer, we can listen in the stillness of the night to hear God's call.

Opening Lord Jesus, as I watch and pray, remain here with me.

Scripture Jesus said to them, “I am deeply grieved, even to death; remain here, and keep awake.” Mark 14:34

Meditation What will I watch and pray about this hour?

Prayers Jesus, alongside your suffering, you also bear my wounds. I offer you all the grief and worries I carry at this hour: may they be transformed by your love. Amen.

Closing Lord Jesus, as I watch and pray, remain here with me.
Easter

Easter, the oldest celebration of the Christian year, is not a single day but an entire season: Easter lasts fifty days, from Easter Day (the Sunday of the Resurrection) through the Day of Pentecost. The season also includes the feast of the Ascension, when the resurrected Jesus ascended to heaven and was seen on earth no longer. Throughout the year every Sunday — even during Lent — is considered a little Easter, a mini feast of the resurrection on what Christians have called the first day of the week. The primary theme of Easter is the resurrection: on this day Jesus was raised from the dead, overcoming the power of death and the grave. We celebrate that we, too, are raised to everlasting life with him in our baptism.

At Pentecost we celebrate the outpouring of the Holy Spirit and the ongoing life of the Holy Spirit in the church today. It is the Holy Spirit who breathes life into the Body of Christ, the church; it is the Holy Spirit who provides the gifts and guidance needed to sustain our life. At every Eucharist we pray that the Holy Spirit will sanctify the bread and wine of communion to be “the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him.” We also pray that the Spirit will “sanctify us also” so that we may receive the Eucharist with faith and serve God “in unity, constancy, and peace.” It is the Holy Spirit who makes God present and alive in our hearts.
Praise

Lauds  (Traditional hour: dawn/waking up)

Laudate, omnes gentes, laudate Dominum!
[Sing praises, all people, sing praises to the Lord!]

We greet the new day by praising the Creator
(the ancient name for this hour, Lauds, means “praise”).

Opening   Alleluia! Christ is risen!
Christ is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Scripture   If anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation:
everything old has passed away;
see, everything has become new!
2 Corinthians 5:17

Meditation   Today, how will I live joyfully in God’s new creation?

Prayer   As the morning approaches, I pray:
Risen Lord, be my light, my life, and my hope.
Come: enlighten my darkness and bring me life
by your life.
Amen.

Going Out   Alleluia! Christ is risen!
Christ is risen indeed! Alleluia!
Discernment

Prime
(Traditional hour: morning/start of the day)

As we begin the day, we focus on our calling to live faithfully, for who knows what today holds?

Opening
Alleluia! O God, may the empty tomb fill our hearts with faith. Alleluia!

Prayer
Jesus, our way, our truth, and our life: As the gift of this new day unfolds, open our hearts and minds to you, that we may see you clearly and follow where you lead; to you, risen Savior, we offer praise, now and always. Amen.

Praise
A Song of Our Adoption
(Ephesians 1:3-10)

Blessed are you, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, * for you have blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places.
Before the world was made, you chose us to be yours in Christ, *
that we should be holy and blameless before you.
You destined us for adoption as your children through Jesus Christ, * according to the good pleasure of your will,
To the praise of your glorious grace, *
that you have freely given us in the Beloved.
In you, we have redemption through the blood of Christ, *
the forgiveness of our sins,
According to the riches of your grace* which you have lavished upon us.
You have made known to us, in all wisdom and insight,*
the mystery of your will,
According to your good pleasure which you set forth in Christ,*
as a plan for the fullness of time,
To gather together all things in Christ,*
things in heaven and things on earth.

Scripture The angel said to the women at the tomb, “I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here, for he has been raised, as he said.”
Matthew 28:6

Meditation The Trouble with Easter
But ... I want the tomb full, like temple or tent — with the Holy enshrouded in fabric un-rent.
Yes, I want death preserved in sweet-smelling spice; not my neighbor perspiring the aroma of Christ.
Julia McCray-Goldsmith

How will we together embrace the gift of life in all its fullness today?

Affirmation
Christ Jesus, though in the form of God, did not exploit equality with God but emptied himself, in the form of a slave,
born in human likeness.
And being found in human form,
he humbled himself
and became obedient to the point of death — even death on a cross.
Therefore, God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2:5-11

Prayers

In the work we do this day,
May the risen Christ teach us.
In the challenges we face this day,
May the risen Christ guide us.
Through the people we meet this day,
May the risen Christ renew us.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

As we respond to the hungers and hurts of this world,
May the Spirit of the risen Christ strengthen us.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer

Jesus, our friend and savior: Guide us in this new day, that we may know God’s desire for us and gain strength and courage to live as beloved children of God. Amen.

Going Out

Alleluia! O God, may the empty tomb fill our hearts with faith. Alleluia!
Wisdom

Terce (Traditional hour: mid-morning)

Having asked for direction and guidance, we pray now to equip ourselves properly for the journey ahead.

Opening Alleluia! Risen Lord, come be with us, and teach our hearts to live in you. Alleluia!

Prayer Jesus, divine companion: As the day unfolds, give us strength to understand and eyes to see, as you teach us to walk the soft earth, related to all that lives. Amen. 101

Praise A Song of Wisdom (Wisdom 10:15-19, 20b-21) 102

Wisdom freed from a nation of oppressors *
   a holy people and a blameless race.
She entered the soul of a servant of the Lord, *
   withstood dread rulers with wonders and signs.

To the saints she gave the reward of their labors, *
   and led them by a marvelous way;
She was their shelter by day * and a blaze of stars by night.

She brought them across the Red Sea, *
   she led them through mighty waters;
But their enemies she swallowed in the waves *
   and spewed them out from the depths of the abyss.

And then, Lord, the righteous sang hymns to your Name * and praised with one voice your protecting hand;
For Wisdom opened the mouths of the mute *
   and gave speech to the tongues of a new-born people.
Scripture  We have been buried with Christ by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life. Romans 6:4

Meditation  I asked my Lord, and he listened to me.
St. Scholastica (d. 543)

Where do we ask for God’s wisdom today?

Prayers  Risen Christ, open our hearts to your grace and truth.
May we walk in newness of life.
Teach us to love others in the power of the Spirit.
May we walk in newness of life.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

Strengthen us as witnesses to your love.
May we walk in newness of life.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer  God our Deliverer, by water and the Holy Spirit we have been buried with Christ and raised to the new life of grace: Give us inquiring and discerning hearts, the courage to will and to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works. Amen.

Going Out  Alleluia! Risen Lord, come be with us, and teach our hearts to live in you. Alleluia!
Perseverance and Renewal

Sext (Traditional hour: mid-day)

As we pause to feed our bodies in the middle of the day, we pause also to feed our souls by vowing again to live faithfully.

Opening Alleluia! Risen Lord, deepen our desire for you. Alleluia!

Prayer God of steadfast love: Turn our hearts to you, that we may once again delight in your goodness and rejoice in the good news of the risen Christ; in whose name we pray. Amen.

Praise Psalm 118:19-24

Open for me the gates of righteousness;
   I will enter them; I will offer thanks to the Lord.
   “This is the gate of the Lord;
      the righteous shall enter through it.”
I will give thanks to you, for you answered me and have become my salvation.
The same stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.
This is the Lord’s doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes.
On this day that the Lord has acted, we will rejoice and be glad in it.

Scripture Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint Jesus. ...They had been saying to one another, “Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?” When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. Mark 16:1, 3-4 Meditation  It is my deepest belief that only by giving our lives do we find life.

_What enables us to give our lives for others?_

Prayers  Lord Jesus, you rise triumphant over death and the grave:
Christ our life, save us.
Christ, the Lord of life, raise us to new life:
Christ our life, save us.

_Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings._

In a world where so many suffer because of hunger and injustice:
Christ our life, save us.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer  Living God, long ago, faithful women proclaimed the good news of Jesus’ resurrection, and the world was changed forever: Teach us to keep faith with them, that our witness may be as bold, our love as deep, and our faith as true.  _Amen._

Going Out  Alleluia! Risen Lord, deepen our desire for you.  Alleluia!
Love

None (Traditional hour: afternoon)

As shadows lengthen, we are filled by the day’s encounters; now, more than ever, we accept the depth and breadth of God’s grace.

Opening Alleluia! Come to us, O risen Lord, and enliven us with your eternal love. Alleluia!

Prayer Loving God, we no longer look for Jesus among the dead, for he is alive in our world, our church and our hearts. Renew and strengthen us in the risen life we share in Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen.

Praise A Song of Faith (1 Peter 1:3-4,18-21)

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, * by divine mercy we have a new birth into a living hope; Through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, * we have an inheritance that is imperishable in heaven. The ransom that was paid to free us * was not paid in silver or gold But in the precious blood of Christ, * the Lamb without spot or stain. God raised Jesus from the dead and gave him glory * so that we might have faith and hope in God.
Scripture  Now, after he rose early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons. She went out and told those who had been with him, while they were mourning and weeping.

Mark 16:9-10

Meditation  For the garden is the only place there is, but you will not find it Until you have looked for it everywhere and found it nowhere that is not a desert.

W. H. Auden, from For the Time Being

Through what desert experiences have we found God’s garden?

Prayers  Merciful God, you have not abandoned us to the grave.

Guide us with your steadfast love.
In your presence there is fullness of joy.
Guide us with your steadfast love.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

You send us into the world to tell the story of your divine mercy.

Guide us with your steadfast love.
Lord’s Prayer

Prayer    Jesus, strong deliverer and our lover, as you sent Mary Magdalene to tell the good news of your resurrection, so fill and embolden us with your love that we may be your faithful witnesses in the world today. In your name we pray. Amen.

Going Out  Alleluia! Come to us, O risen Lord, and enliven us with your eternal love. Alleluia!
Forgiveness

Vespers (Traditional hour: evening/end of the day)

As we turn on lamps at dusk, we greet the evening by welcoming God to abide with us anew.

Opening Alleluia! By death, Christ tramples death. On those in the tombs, he bestows new life. Alleluia!

Prayer God of victory over death, your Son revealed himself again and again to convince his followers of his glorious resurrection: Grant that we may know his risen presence, in love obediently feed his sheep and care for the lambs of his flock, until we join the hosts of heaven in worshiping you and praising the one who is worthy of blessing and honor, glory and power, for ever and ever. Amen.

Praise Light of the World Phos hilaron

Light of the world, in grace and beauty, Mirror of God’s eternal face, Transparent flame of love’s free duty, You bring salvation to our race. Now, as we see the lights of evening, We raise our voice in hymns of praise; Worthy are you of endless blessing, Sun of our night, lamp of our days.

Scripture Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon, son of John, do you love me?” He said to him, “Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.” Jesus said to him, “Tend my sheep.” John 21:16
Meditation  The future will be different if we make the present different.

How will we make the future different by caring for others now?

Confession  During the joyful season of Easter, the Confession of Sin is omitted in order for worship to emphasize the celebration of redemption and new life that are characteristic of this season.

Assurance of Pardon  We know that our old self was crucified with Christ so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin. ... So you must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Prayers  Jesus, in your life we receive life:
Raise us to the new life of grace.
You look with compassion on our human failings:
Raise us to the new life of grace.
We proclaim the hope of your resurrection as we offer you these prayers:

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

You make us bearers of hope in a world of suffering and despair:
Raise us to the new life of grace.
Lord’s Prayer

Prayer    Lord Jesus, stay with us, for evening is at hand and the day is past; be our companion in the way, kindle our hearts, and awaken hope, that we may know you as you are revealed in Scripture and the breaking of the bread. Grant this for the sake of your love. Amen. 110

Going Out    Alleluia! By death, Christ tramples death. On those in the tombs, he bestows new life. Alleluia!

Compline  (Traditional hour: night/bedtime)

We sum up this day with a bedtime prayer to examine our conscience and offer our actions to God.

Opening  Alleluia! May God, who raised Jesus from the dead, grant us a peaceful night and a perfect end. Alleluia!

Prayer  God, you sent your Son into the world that we might live through him: May we abide in his risen life so that we may love one another as he first loved us, and know the fullness of joy. Amen.

Praise  Psalm 113

Hallelujah! Give praise, you servants of God; praise the Name of the Most High.
Let God’s Name be blest, from this time forth for evermore.
From the rising of the sun to its going down let God’s holy Name be praised.
God is high above all nations, and God’s glory above the heavens.
Who is like our God, who sits enthroned on high, but stoops to behold the heavens and the earth?
God takes up the weak out of the dust and lifts up the poor from the ashes.
To set them up on high, with the rulers of the people.
God makes the woman of a childless house to be a joyful mother of children.
Scripture  May the God of peace, who brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, make you complete in everything good so that you may do his will, working among us that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory for ever and ever.

Hebrews 13:20-21

Meditation  A characteristic of the great saints is their power of levity. The angels fly because they can take themselves lightly.

G. K. Chesterton

As this day closes, what burdens can we lay down?

Prayers  O God of peace, in our disappointments and in our triumphs,
Let us rest secure in your loving arms.
In our certainty and in our confusion,
Let all people rest secure in your loving arms.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

As we await a new day,
Let all creation rest secure in your loving arms.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer  All shall be Amen and Alleluia.
We shall rest and we shall see.
   We shall see and we shall know.
We shall know and we shall love.
   We shall love and we shall praise.
Behold our end, which is no end. Amen.

Saint Augustine

Closing  Alleluia! May God, who raised Jesus from the dead, grant us a peaceful night and a perfect end.
Alleluia!
Watch

Vigils (Traditional hour: late night)

Like nuns and monks at prayer, we can listen in the stillness of the night to hear God’s call.

Opening Alleluia! O risen Christ,
watch with me. Alleluia!

Scripture Jesus came and stood among them and said,
“Peace be with you.”

John 20:19b

Meditation How will I accept Christ’s peace this night?

Prayer All praise to thee, my God, this night for all the blessings of the light;
keep me, O keep me, King of kings, beneath thine own almighty wings. 114

Closing Alleluia! O risen Christ,
watch with me. Alleluia!
Ordinary Time: Creation

The Season after Pentecost is not actually a season with a single common focus, but is simply the weeks between the Day of Pentecost and the First Sunday of Advent. It is often called “Ordinary Time.” These weeks hold both the slower pace and peaceful quality of summer months and the quicker pace and flurry of activity in the early fall. These are our “ordinary” days, in which we live the Christian faith in our daily lives.

During these weeks, as the liturgical scholar Leonel Mitchell puts it, we celebrate “the time in which we actually live — the period between the Pentecost and the Second Advent.” Two thousand years after the first Pentecost, the church still lives in this “in between” time before the fulfillment of time in Christ’s second coming. You might also hear these weeks called “the long, green season,” referring both to the green color of the vestments and altar hangings for these weeks as well as to the summertime of year in which many of the weeks fall in the northern hemisphere.

After Pentecost we settle into the growing season, nourishing the seeds planted at Easter and putting down roots in our faith.
Praise

Lauds  (Traditional hour: dawn/waking up)

Laudate omnes, gentes, laudate Dominum!

[Sing praises, all people, sing praises to the Lord!]
We greet the new day by praising the Creator
(the ancient name for this hour, Lauds, means “praise”).

Opening  This is the day that the Lord has made;
I will rejoice and be glad in it.

Scripture  O Lord, how manifold are your works!  Psalm 104:27

Meditation  How will I use the gift of this new day?
How will I notice the glory of creation?

Prayer  Many and great, O God, are thy works, maker of earth and sky;
thy hands have set the heavens with stars;
thy fingers spread the mountains and plains.
Lo, at thy word the waters were formed;
deep seas obey thy voice.

Grant unto us communion with thee, thou star-abiding one;
come unto us and dwell with us;
with thee are found the gifts of life.
Bless us with life that has no end,
eternal life with thee.

Wakantanka taku nitawa mahpiya kin eyehnake ca, makakin he duowanca.

Mniowanca sbeya wanke cin,

Many and Great “Dakota Hymn” / Lacquiparle by Joseph r. Renville (1942)

Going Out  This is the day that the Lord has made;
I will rejoice and be glad in it.
Discernment

Prime  (Traditional hour: morning/start of the day)

As we begin the day, we focus on our calling to live faithfully, for who knows what today holds?

Opening  Holy God, you are always with us.
  Open our eyes to your presence.

Prayer  God of faithful surprises, throughout the ages you have made known your love and power in unexpected ways and places: May we daily perceive the joy and wonder of your abiding presence and offer our lives in gratitude for our redemption.  Amen.

Praise  Benedictce Omnia Opera

All you works of God, bless your creator;
praise her and glorify her for ever.

Let the wide earth bless the creator;
let the arching heavens bless the creator;
let the whole body of God bless the creator;
praise her and glorify her for ever.

You returning daylight, bless your creator;
twilight and shadows, bless your creator;
embracing darkness, bless your creator;
praise her and glorify her for ever.

Let all who live and grow and breathe bless our creator,
praise her and glorify her for ever.

Janet Morley

Scripture I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit because, apart from me, you can do nothing. You did not choose me, but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last.

John 15:5, 16a
Meditation  People say that walking on water is a miracle, but to me, walking peacefully on the earth is the real miracle.

Thich Nhat Hanh 117

_How will we walk in peace today?_

Affirmation

We believe in God, the creator of all life and beauty, who blesses our journey.

We believe in Jesus Christ, who lived as a friend and savior to all he met as he traveled, and who ate and laughed, wept and celebrated with them in love.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, who rides on the gentle breeze, who strengthens our bindings, and who offers hope eternal.

We believe in the church, which stands open to all travelers, and bears witness to the everlasting love of God. 118

Prayers
As we turn to the tasks before us this day,
Fill us, gracious Lord.
In making faithful choices, great and small,
Guide us, gracious Lord.
As we seek to notice and serve those in need,
Teach us, gracious Lord.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

As we offer our lives to you,
Hear us, gracious Lord.
With our hearts ready to serve,
Accompany us, gracious Lord.
Lord’s Prayer

Prayer  Generous Giver, you pour forth your extravagant bounty without measure upon your whole creation: Teach us such generosity, that the fruits of our spirits and the works of our hands may build your commonwealth of blessing. Amen. 119

Going Out  Holy God, you are always with us. Open our eyes to your presence.
Wisdom

Terce  (Traditional hour: mid-morning)

Having asked for direction and guidance, we pray now to equip ourselves properly for the journey ahead.

Opening  Let all who desire wisdom walk in love.

Prayer  Holy Lord, giver of all wisdom: Set for us this day the banquet of your word; invite us to feast on the genius and beauty all around us. Then, turn us in humility toward the poor, the oppressed and the weak; we ask this in the name of Jesus, who is Wisdom for ever and ever. Amen. 120

Praise  A Song of Pilgrimage  (Ecclesiasticus 51:13-16, 20b-22) 121

Before I ventured forth, even while I was very young, *
I sought wisdom openly in my prayer.
In the forecourts of the temple I asked for her, * and I will seek her to the end.
From first blossom to early fruit, * she has been the delight of my heart.
My foot has kept firmly to the true path, * diligently from my youth have I pursued her.
I inclined my ear a little and received her; * I found for myself much wisdom and became adept in her.
To the one who gives me wisdom will I give glory, * for I have resolved to live according to her way.
From the beginning I gained courage from her; * therefore I will not be forsaken.
In my inmost being, I have been stirred to seek her; * therefore have I gained a good possession.
As my reward, the Almighty has given me the gift of language, * and with it will I offer praise to God.
Scripture  But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy. And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace for those who make peace.  James 3:17-18

Meditation  Focus on Wisdom and do not be distracted. Watch the patterns of creation, and you will awaken to grace and tranquility.  Proverbs 3:19-22

How will we remain focused today so as to receive wisdom from creation?

Prayers  O God, in peace, you have prepared our path for today. Help us to trace it in peace. If we speak, Remove lies from our lips. If we are hungry, Rid us of complaint. If we have plenty, Flatten the pride in us. We offer these prayers of our hearts to your wise guidance:

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

May we pass through the day, calling on you, O Lord, who knows no other Lord. Amen.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer  Holy One, in love you created us and called it good: Grant us the deep wisdom of your love that, wherever this day leads, our lives may remain rooted in your goodness; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Going Out  Let all who desire wisdom walk in love.
Perseverance and Renewal

Sext (Traditional hour: mid-day)

As we pause to feed our bodies in the middle of the day, we pause also to feed our souls by vowing again to live faithfully.

Opening  God’s power, working in us, does more than we imagine: Glory to God!

Prayer  Creating God, your reign of love makes all things new: Plant seeds of confidence and gladness in our hearts so that, trusting in your word, we may live no longer for ourselves but for him who died and was raised for us, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen. 124

Praise  For the Beauty of the Earth
(Music, if desired, may be found in The Hymnal 1982, #416.)

For the beauty of the earth,
For the beauty of the skies,
For the love which from our birth
Over and around us lies:
Christ our God, to thee we raise
This our sacrifice of praise.

For the beauty of each hour,
Of the day and of the night,
Hill and vale and tree and flower,
Sun and moon and stars of light:
Christ, our God, to thee we raise
This our sacrifice of praise.

Words: Folliot Sandford Pierpont (1835-1917)
Scripture  So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest-time if we do not give up. So then, whenever we have an opportunity, let us work for the good of all, and especially for those of the family of faith.

Galatians 6:9-10

Meditation  Care … rests upon genuine religion. Care allows creatures to escape our explanations into their actual presence and their essential mystery. In taking care of our fellow creatures, we acknowledge that they are not ours; we acknowledge that they belong to an order and harmony of which we ourselves are parts. To answer to the perpetual crisis of our presence in this abounding and dangerous world, we have only the perpetual obligation of care.

Wendell Berry 125

At this hour, how is God calling us to care for creation?

Prayers  O God, whose Spirit moved upon the waters, we remember those who live in lands of drought or flood, whose harvest is not-enough or not-at-all. Today, they sow in tears: soon, may they reap with shouts of joy.

We remember those whose water supply is polluted by negligence or need, those to whom water brings disease, poisoning or radiation, whose gift of life is cursed by death. Today, they sow in tears: soon, may they reap with shouts of joy.
We remember ourselves:
   We devastate the waters and the fruits of the earth, and we are unwilling to form one circle with our brothers and sisters around the world.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

And we ask, Merciful Creator, to shed their tears
   that soon we may all reap with shouts of joy. 126

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer
Source of life and blessing, of garden, orchard, field:
   Root us in obedience to you and nourish us by your ever-flowing Spirit that, perceiving only the good we might do, our lives may be fruitful, our labor productive, and our service useful, in communion with Jesus, our brother. Amen. 127

Going Out
God’s power, working in us, does more than we imagine: Glory to God!
As shadows lengthen, we are filled by the day’s encounters; now, more than ever, we accept the depth and breadth of God’s grace.

Opening  As you have loved us, may we love one another.

Prayer  O Tree of Calvary, send your roots deep into my soul. Gather together my frailties — my soiled heart, my sandy instability and my muddy desires — and entwine them with the strong roots of your arboreal love. Amen.

Praise  Lord God, we praise you for those riches of our creation that we will never see: For stars whose light will never reach the earth; For species of living things that were born, that flourished and perished before humankind appeared in the world; For patterns and colors in the flowers, which only insect eyes are able to see; For strange, high music that humans can never hear. Lord God, you see everything that you have made and behold that it is very good. Anonymous

Scripture  I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.

John 13:34-35
Meditation  Isn’t that what friendship is all about: giving to each other the gift of our belovedness?

Henri Nouwen 130

Where do we need to offer and receive the gift of our belovedness? How can we treat the earth as beloved?

Prayers  As the day lengthens, O Christ,
Teach us to walk in your love.
While we strive to be faithful in word and deed,
Teach us to love one another.
While we live as part of your creation,
Teach us to love this good earth.
While we offer our prayers this hour:

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

With grateful hearts,
Teach us to trust in your love.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer  Gracious Lord, the air sings with songs of glory, water flashes silver with creation, and the forests bloom with leaves for healing nations: May your light and love fill our hearts and souls and minds, that we may share your love with the world.

Amen. 131

Going Out  As you have loved us, may we love one another.
Forgiveness

Vespers (Traditional hour: evening/end of the day)

As we turn on lamps at dusk, we greet the evening by welcoming God to abide with us anew.

Opening  If anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation.

Prayer  Creating God, your reign of love makes all things new: Plant seeds of confidence and gladness in our hearts, so that, trusting your word, we may live no longer for ourselves but for him who died and was raised for us, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Praise

Doxology

May none of God’s wonderful works keep silence, night or morning. Bright stars, high mountains, the depths of the seas, sources of rushing rivers: May all these break into song as we sing to Creator, Savior and Holy Spirit. May all the angels in the heavens reply: Amen! Amen! Amen! Power, praise, honor and eternal glory to God, the only giver of grace. Amen! Amen! Amen!      Anonymous (third century)

Scripture  So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! All this is from God, who reconciled us through Christ and has given us the ministry of reconciliation.

2 Corinthians 5:17-18
Meditation  We should be clear about what happens when we destroy the living forms of this planet. The first consequence is that we destroy modes of divine presence.

_What will we do today to preserve God’s work in creation?_

Confession  We confess that we have considered the earth to be our own, believing God gave us dominion and, thus, absolute control over it. We affirm that “the earth is the LORD’s and all that is in it, for he has founded it on the seas and established it on the rivers.” (Psalm 24:1-2) We repent. We know we need to change our understanding of creation, taking our share of responsibility for its care and protection. We believe that the Spirit, God’s recreating power, is active in us and in the world. God, Creator of all, may humankind be freed from greed, which is destroying the earth; and may your courageous churches take up causes against the forces that threaten life.

_Amen._
Assurance of Pardon

God does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us by the measure of our failings. As vast as the distance from one end of creation to another, God’s love for us is even greater. As far as east is from west, from greater than this distance does God remove our sin from us.

Thanks be to God. 136

Prayers

Holy One, we praise you for the wonders of your creation:
Make us joyful and faithful stewards.
As the day grows long,
Bless us with the gift of laying down our burdens.
And not ours only:
Help us lift the weights we have placed on others and on your creation.
We offer these prayers of our hearts:

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

Create in us, again and always, your heart of grace. May we rest on the sure foundation of your love.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer

Give us strength to understand and eyes to see; teach us to walk the soft earth as related to all that lives. Amen. 137

Going Out

If anyone is in Christ,
there is a new creation.
Trust

Compline  (Traditional hour: night/bedtime)

We sum up this day with a bedtime prayer to examine our conscience and offer our actions to God.

Opening
The Lord almighty grant us a peaceful night and a perfect end. Amen.

Prayer
God our desire, whose coming we look for, but whose arrival is unexpected:
Here in the darkness make us urgent to greet you, and open yourself to our longing that we may be known by you through Jesus Christ, Amen.

Praise
Lifetime Psalm
Praise my soul, our good Lord.
Sing songs to God’s name, for God has brought my life into fresh waters when I was thirsty.
God has fed me with the Bread of Life when I was starving.
God has sustained me along all my days and never has put me to shame.
Praise my soul, our good Lord, for such abundant goodness.

Scripture
Blessed are those who trust in the Lord, whose trust is the Lord. They shall be like a tree planted by water, sending out its roots by the stream. It shall not fear when heat comes, and its leaves shall stay green; in the year of drought, it is not anxious, and it does not cease to bear fruit.

Jeremiah 17:7-8
Meditation Fish cannot drown in water, birds cannot sink in air, gold cannot perish in the refiner’s fire. This has God given to all creatures: to foster and seek their own nature.
Mechthild of Magdeburg (13th century)

> What has God given us today to help us be more fully ourselves?

Prayer Creator God,
you call us to love and serve you with body, mind, and spirit through loving your creation and our sisters and brothers.
Open our hearts in compassion and receive these petitions on behalf of the needs of the church and the world.
Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer Holy One, you planted us by living water, that we might be rooted in righteousness. You call us to be holy as you are holy. Assured of your love, help us cast aside all fear, so that we may love our neighbors as ourselves. Amen.

Closing The Lord almighty grant us a peaceful night and a perfect end. Amen.
Watch

Vigils (Traditional hour: late night)

Like nuns and monks at prayer, we can listen in the stillness of the night to hear God’s call.

Opening All creation longs for grace:
I wait in hope.

Scripture Be still, then, and know that I am God;
I will be exalted among the nations;
I will be exalted in the earth. Psalm 46:11 (BCP)

Meditation How will I be still and trusting this night?

Prayers Hidden God, ever present to me,
may I now be present to you,
attentive to your every word, attuned to your inspirations,
alert to your touch.
Empty me that I may be filled with you alone.
Amen. 141

Closing All creation longs for grace:
I wait in hope.
Ordinary Time: Rest
Praise

Lauds  (Traditional hour: dawn/waking up)

Laudate, omnes gentes, laudate Dominum!
[Sing praises, all people, Sing praises to the Lord!]
We greet the new day by praising the Creator
(the ancient name for this hour, Lauds, means “praise”).

Opening  I begin this day with joy:
God is good.

Scripture  God saw everything that God had made, and,
indeed, it was very good.

Genesis 1:31

Meditation  How will I receive God’s goodness today?

Prayer  Holy Creator, help me to embrace this day with open arms and to share your good gifts with gladness and generosity. Amen.

Going Out  I begin this day with joy:
God is good.
Discernment

Prime (Traditional hour: morning/start of the day)

As we begin the day, we focus on our calling to live faithfully, for who knows what today holds?

Opening We are called in the morning to turn our hearts to you.

Prayer God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change; courage to change the things I can; and wisdom to know the difference. Living one day at a time; enjoying one moment at a time; accepting hardships as the pathway to peace; taking, as Jesus did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it; trusting, O God, that you will make all things right if I surrender to your will; that I may be reasonably happy in this life and supremely happy with you for ever in the next. Amen. 142

Praise Rejoice, people of God! Celebrate the life within you, and Christ’s presence in your midst!

Our eyes shall be opened! The presence will have new meaning, and the future will be bright with hope.

Rejoice, people of God! Bow your heads before the One who is our wisdom and our strength.

We place ourselves before our God, that we may be touched and cleansed by the power of God’s Spirit. 143
Scripture  Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these.  Luke 12:27

Meditation  The final fruitfulness of work is actually found by choosing and living its exact opposite — the cessation of work — or the Sabbath rest. Unless approximately one-seventh of life is also ceasing from work, putting spaces, paragraphs, and parentheses around my efforts, work always becomes compulsive, addictive, driven, unconscious, and actually counter-productive for the self and for those around us. We also need not to work.  Richard Rohr 144

Today, how will we cease from work?

Affirmation

We believe in God, who loves us and wants us to love each other.
This is our God.

We believe in Jesus, who cared for children and held them in his arms.
He wanted a world where everyone could live together in peace.
This is Jesus Christ.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, who keeps working with us until everything is good and true.
This is the Holy Spirit.

We can be the church, which reminds people of God because we love each other.
This we believe. Amen. 145
Prayers

As we begin our day,
Give us your peace.
As we pause this morning,
Give us your peace.
As we do the work you have given us to do,
Give us your peace.
For all places of need in this world,
Give us your peace.
In trusting you, O God, to care for your children,
Give us your peace.
As we seek wholeness,
Give us your peace.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

As we reflect on your presence,
Let us be peace for others.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer

Holy One, we are too often blinded by trivial matters. Lord, may our attention be diverted now from these things, and may we become as little children, trusting and seeking with love to cross bridges that we have not crossed in the past.

Amen.

Going Out

We are called in the morning to turn our hearts to you.
Wisdom

Terce (Traditional hour: mid-morning)

Having asked for direction and guidance, we pray now to equip ourselves properly for the journey ahead.

Opening

Listen and hear:
Be still and know.

Prayer

O Holy Wisdom, direct us on your path. Make us worthy of your teachings and open our hearts to accept your embrace, that we may serve you in peace and grace. Amen.

Praise

A Song of Pilgrimage

(Ecclesiasticus 51:13-16, 20b-22; metrical paraphrase) 147
(Music, if desired, may be found in Wonder, Love and Praise, #906.)

Even when young, I prayed for wisdom’s grace;
in temple courts I sought her day and night,
and I will seek her to the very end;
she is my heart’s delight.

My foot has firmly walked the path of truth;
with diligence, I followed her design.
My ear was open to receive her words;
now wisdom’s skill is mine.

Glory to one who gives me wisdom’s prize;
I vowed to live according to her way.
She gave me courage from the very start;
she will not let me stray.

Something within my being has been stirred;
my seeking brought a gift beyond compare:
the gift of language loosed my halting tongue;
God’s praise is now my prayer.

Words: Patricia B. Clark (b. 1938)
Scripture  Resting your thoughts on Her [Wisdom] — this is perfect understanding. Staying mindful of Her — this is perfect calm. She embraces those who are ready for Her, revealing Herself in the midst of their travels, meeting them in every thought.
Wisdom of Solomon 6:15-16

Meditation  in the new light of each day’s questions,
I am never prepared.
Today, again, I have nothing to offer but a handful of old prayers, worn down by the relentless abrasion of doubt, and a fragment of dream that plays on in my head only half remembered. Still, the doves coo and circle through the pines
as they do when I pass each morning. Their sorrow is so nearly human, it rings sweet with regret. By dusk, the trees will bow down, and I, too, will make my appeal, will find again your mercy,
your solace.

Elizabeth Drescher 148

How will we embrace Wisdom’s light and love this morning?
Prayers

Holy Wisdom, we rest in your goodness:
Guide us with your grace.
For your Church we ask:
Guide us with your grace.
For our world we ask:
Guide us with your grace.
For our communities we ask:
Guide us with your grace.
And for ourselves: When we speak,
Guide us with your grace.
When we desire,
Guide us with your grace.
When we are afraid,
Guide us with your grace.
We offer these prayers of our hearts to you:

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

As we journey this day,
Guide us with your grace.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer

Grant us, Lord, your wisdom as we face the questions of this day. Reveal to us the faithful path, and, O Holy Wisdom, may we make you our heart’s illumination. Amen.

Going Out

Listen and hear:
Be still and know.
Perseverance and Renewal

Sext (Traditional hour: mid-day)

As we pause to feed our bodies in the middle of the day, we pause also to feed our souls by vowing again to live faithfully.

Opening

My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.

Prayer

Grant us, O God, not to be anxious about earthly things but to love things heavenly and, even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those that shall endure; through Christ our Lord, Amen. 149

Praise

Peace before us

(Music and additional verses, if desired, may be found in Wonder, Love and Praise, #791.)

Peace before us, peace behind us,
Peace under our feet.
Peace within us, peace over us,
Let all around us be peace.

Light before us, light behind us,
Light under our feet.
Light within us, light over us,
Let all around us be light.

Love before us, love behind us,
Love under our feet.
Love within us, love over us,
Let all around us be love.

Christ before us, Christ behind us,
Christ under our feet.
Christ within us, Christ over us,
Let all around us be Christ.

Words: David Haas (based on a Navaho prayer) 150
Scripture  When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come proclaiming the mystery of God to you in lofty words or wisdom. My speech and my proclamation were not with the persuasiveness of wisdom but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God.

I Corinthians 2:1-5

Meditation  Whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

St. Paul (2 Corinthians 12:10b)

How do we find strength manifested in weakness?

Prayers  In our daily tasks,
God surrounds us.
In our successes and failures,
God surrounds us.
In our joys and sorrows,
God surrounds us.
With the healing of our world,
God surrounds us.
We pray for all who celebrate, or seek, or need God’s love:

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

As we continue our day,
God surrounds us in hope.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer  O Holy One, we keep still; we listen.
We hear you say, “I am your strength.”
And we say to you, “You are our redeemer.”
Amen. 151

Going Out  My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.
As shadows lengthen, we are filled by the day’s encounters; now, more than ever, we accept the depth and breadth of God’s grace.

Opening
What we offer is enough: God’s love covers all.

Prayer
Creator and lover of our souls: Teach us to release our burdens and accept your love. May your love be the deepest reality of our lives, and may we offer real love to others. Amen.

Praise
A Song of God’s Love (I John 4:7-11)
Beloved, let us love one another, * for love is of God. Whoever does not love does not know God, * for God is love. In this, the love of God was revealed among us, * that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through Jesus Christ. In this is love, not that we loved God but that God loved us * and sent his Son that sins might be forgiven. Beloved, since God loved us so much, * we ought also to love one another. For if we love one another, God abides in us, * and God’s love will be perfected in us.
Scripture  Come to me, all of you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

Matthew 11:28

Meditation “Wasn’t I Real before?” asked the little Rabbit. “You were Real to the Boy,” the Fairy said, “because he loved you. Now you shall be Real to everyone.”

Margery Williams, The Velveteen Rabbit

What does it take to offer real love to another? How shall we do that today?

Prayers  May the longtime sun shine upon us. God’s love is in us. May God’s love shine on all people. God’s love is all in all. May all people know God’s love. God’s love fills us all.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

May the pure light of God’s love Lead us to love others.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer  O love of God, how strong and true! Eternal, and yet ever new; uncomprehended and unbought, beyond all knowledge and all thought: bless us with your love, that, in loving others we may honor you. Amen.

Going Out  What we offer is enough: God’s love covers all.
Forgiveness

Vespers  (Traditional hour: evening/end of the day)

As we turn on lamps at dusk, we greet the evening by welcoming God to abide with us anew.

Opening    Holy One, lift our burdens, for your yoke is easy.

Prayer     O God, as the showers renew the earth, bathe us in your healing power. Stretch out your hand, that we may live and know that you alone are God, in whose faithfulness we have life all our days.
Amen. 155

Praise     A Song of Our True Nature  (Julian of Norwich) 156

Christ revealed our frailty and our falling, * our trespasses and our humiliations.
Christ also revealed his blessed power, * his blessed wisdom and love.
He protects us as tenderly and as sweetly when we are in greatest need; * he raises us in spirit and turns everything to glory and joy without ending.

God is the ground and the substance, the very essence of nature; *
God is the true father and mother of natures.
We are all bound to God by nature, * and we are all bound to God by grace.
And this grace is for all the world, * because it is our precious mother, Christ.
For this fair nature was prepared by Christ for the honor and nobility of all, * and for the joy and bliss of salvation.
Scripture  Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action. By this we will know that we are from the truth and will reassure our hearts before him whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything.

_I John 3:19-20_

Meditation  Where there is no love, put love, and you will draw love out.

_St. John of the Cross_

_Where have we neglected to put love? Where do we ask that love be drawn from us?_

Confession  Most loving God, we confess that we have not loved in thought, word, or deed. We have not loved you or our neighbors or ourselves. We are sorry. Remind us that you love us unconditionally and help us to rest in your love.

_Assurance of Pardon_

Loving God, have mercy on us, forgive us for forgetting to love, and renew our ability to give and receive love in all that we do. _Amen._

Prayers  Gracious Lord, whenever we err, Fill our hearts with your love. When we wound or are wounded, Fill our hearts with your love. When tempted to judge, Fill our hearts with your love. Wherever there is hurt, loss, or despair, Fill our world with your love.

_Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings._
Make us faithful instruments of your peace.
May we fill our world with your love.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy. O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen. 160

Going Out Holy One, lift our burdens, for your yoke is easy.
Trust

Compline (Traditional hour: night/bedtime)

We sum up this day with a bedtime prayer to examine our conscience and offer our actions to God.

Opening As a loving mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you.

Prayer O God, at the setting of the sun, we place our trust in you. As the night draws near, we give thanks for your presence with us. Help us entrust our lives to you with the delight and confidence of one who loves and is beloved. Through Jesus, our faithful Savior. Amen.

Praise Leaning on the Everlasting Arms
(Music, if desired, may be found in Lift Every Voice and Sing II, #196.)

What a fellowship, what a joy divine,
Leaning on the everlasting arms;
What a blessedness, what a peace is mine,
Leaning on the everlasting arms.

Refrain
Leaning, leaning,
safe and secure from all alarms;
Leaning, leaning,
Leaning on the everlasting arms.

O how sweet to walk in this pilgrim way,
Leaning on the everlasting arms;
O how bright the path grows from day to day,
Leaning on the everlasting arms.

Refrain

What have I to dread, what have I to fear,
Leaning on the everlasting arms;
I have blessed peace with my Lord so near,
Leaning on the everlasting arms.

Refrain

Words: Elisha A. Hoffman (1839-1929)
Scripture  My beloved speaks and says to me: “Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away; for now the winter is past, the rain is over and gone. The flowers appear on the earth; the time of singing has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land. The fig tree puts forth its figs, and the vines are in blossom; they give forth fragrance. Arise my love, my fair one, and come away.”

Song of Solomon 2:10-13

Meditation  The measure of love is to love without measure.

Attributed to Augustine

What “measure” will we release in order to embrace God’s love this hour?

Prayers  The cares of our hearts

We entrust to you, O God.
The needs of your Church

We entrust to you, O God.
The wounds of the world

We entrust to you, O God.
The hopes we carry

We entrust to you, O God.
The deep desire for peace

We entrust to you, O God.

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.
With all our lives and all our holy longings
We praise you and trust your love for us,
O Lover of our souls. Amen.

Lord’s Prayer

Prayer  Gracious God, support us all the day long, until the shadows lengthen, and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then in your mercy, grant us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last. Amen. ¹⁶¹

Closing  As a loving mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you.
Watch

Vigils  (Traditional hour: late night)

Like nuns and monks at prayer, we can listen in the stillness of the night to hear God’s call.

Opening  God of love, when I rest, I feel you near.

Scripture  I will dwell in your house forever; I will take refuge under the cover of your wings.

Psalm 61:4

Meditation  Consider the promise that God’s love is ever with you. How does it feel to rest in that care?

Prayers  Spirit of comfort and longing, enfold my fear, unclothe my pride, unweave my thoughts, uncomplicate my heart, and give me surrender: that I may tell my wounds, lay down my work, and greet the dark. Amen.¹⁶²

Closing  God of love, when I rest, I feel you near.
Appendix

The Lord’s Prayer

Two translations of the Lord’s Prayer are in use in The Episcopal Church today. The form on the left has been in use since the first American Prayer Book, adopted in 1789. The form on the right was produced during the 1970s by the ecumenical International Consultation on English Texts, which was convened to produce agreed versions of texts at a time when many churches in many countries were producing modern-language liturgies.

Our Father, who art in heaven, Our Father in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, hallowed be your Name, thy kingdom come, your kingdom come, thy will be done, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. on earth as in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. Give us today our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, Forgive us our sins as we forgive those as we forgive those who trespass against us. who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation, Save us from the time of trial, but deliver us from evil. and deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, For the kingdom, the power, and the glory, and the power, and the glory are yours, for ever and ever. Amen. now and for ever. Amen.
In the earliest editions of the Book of Common Prayer (published in England during the sixteenth century), the Lord’s Prayer ended with “deliver us from evil.” It appears again this way in the services of Noonday Prayer and Compline in the 1979 Book of Common Prayer:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those
who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
