

THE Missionary
SOCIETY

Grant and Scholarship
Programs

First Mark of Mission:

To proclaim the good news of the Kingdom

Church plants and

Mission Enterprise Zones

Provides matching grants, training, and support for the planting of congregations or establishing a Mission Enterprise Zone. A “Mission Enterprise Zone,” is a geographic area, group of congregations, or an entire diocese committed to mission and evangelism that engages under-represented groups, including youth and young adults, people of color, poor and working-class people, people with a high-school diploma or less, and/or people with little or no church background or involvement.

Campus ministry grants

Provides grants to establish or revitalize campus ministry locations.

New Opportunity grants

Assist Native people throughout the Episcopal Church to develop new and innovative approaches to their ministry (church based projects).

Network capacity building grants

Capacity building grants given to grassroots networks who want to expand their reach, scope and impact for furthering mission and ministry across the church (i.e. TENS, ESC, College for Bishops).

Block grants

Provides discretionary funds for diocesan expenses for Prov II dioceses in the Caribbean and Europe, Indigenous ministry dioceses in Prov VI and VIII, Prov VIII dioceses in Asia, Province IX dioceses, as well as now autonomous churches of the Anglican Communion which were once dioceses of The Episcopal Church.

Second Mark of Mission:

To teach, baptize and nurture new believers

Province IX sustainability grants

Provides funding to dioceses within Prov IX for moving towards financially sustainable models of ministry within their cultural context.

Indigenous Theological Training grants

Provides training for Indigenous leaders in the Episcopal Church – those called to lay and ordained ministry.

CETALC

Support for the educational, theological, and formational needs of the church in Latin America and the Caribbean, including continuing education and individual scholarships.

Constable

Awards grants to variety of mission and ministry initiatives, preferably for the work in religious education.

Roanridge

Used for the training of town and country clergy and rural Christian workers of the Episcopal Church.

Conant

Funds are provided for the improvement of seminary-based theological education, support of research, writing and course development undertaken by faculty.

SCOM

Provides funds for cross cultural learning opportunities, specifically for seminarian education.

Scholarships

Awards scholarships for educational purposes for a variety of constituents within the broader Episcopal community including seminary education, children of missionaries, and other designated groups. Preference is given to individuals who possess financial hardship.

3

Third Mark of Mission:

To respond to human need by loving service

Gap year pilot programs

Provides funding for experimental pilot programs to build toward the capacity of a “Gap Year” option in the Episcopal Church to support young people age 18-21 who are discerning their future.

Jubilee

Engage Episcopalians in work with poor and oppressed people, wherever they are found, to meet basic human needs and to build a just society.

Incarnational poverty engagement

Provides funding to support transformative grass-roots initiatives and ministries by serving as a pipeline for people to engage directly with walking alongside the poor.

4

Fourth Mark of Mission:

To transform unjust structures of society

United Thank Offering

Provides funds for programs that address compelling human needs by supporting the alleviation of poverty, both domestically and internationally.

Asset-based community development grants

Helps congregations and other bodies work through a process of discernment, identifying their strengths and translating them into ministry.

5 Fifth Mark of Mission:

To safeguard the integrity of creation and sustain and renew the life of the earth

EcoJustice fellowships

Provides for stipendiary support for study done to further the Episcopal Church's engagement in EcoJustice.

EcoJustice grants

Provides funding support to congregations, dioceses, and other bodies to support mission and ministry projects that further the safeguarding of God's creation.

For more information
please contact:

Samuel A. McDonald

Deputy COO and Director of Mission
smcdonald@episcopalchurch.org

212-716-6162

THE Missionary
SOCIETY

