

PARTNERS
in MISSION

THE Missionary
 SOCIETY

An Innovative Program Bringing a Global Perspective to Local Action

The Missionary Society seeks partnerships for mission – dioceses, congregations, and networks. It brings support from the churchwide level – funding, expertise, and human resources – to leverage for mission with local partners. We are all about mission. And partnerships allow us to do more mission together.

We want to hear from you. This is just the beginning. We want to know how we can work with you to support mission at the local level. We would love to hear your ideas. Interested in partnering? Please contact your diocesan partnership representative today.

<http://www.episcopalchurch.org/missionary-society> partnering creating sharing

Would you like a partner to proclaim the Good News of the Kingdom?

Grants to start 10 new churches and 50 Mission Enterprise Zones

Expert staff support, at no cost to you, offering:

- Neighborhood demographics
- Strategies for church starts, Mission Enterprise Zones, and redevelopments
- Methods of reaching non-Anglo communities —Latino, Black, Indigenous, Asian

Ongoing support for church planters

Expanding chaplaincy in federal facilities and military bases in your diocese

Telling a Gospel story:

- Documentaries of mission — video production
- Social media
- Thought leadership events—forums with experts on the causes and issues of interest to you
- Church marketing
- Producing a website
- Producing a webcast (conventions, ordinations, thought leadership events)

Mass communications:

- Postcards
- Print ads
- Billboards
- Letting the wider Church know about your events and job postings on our digital publications
- Public Affairs toolkit —the basics of local media opinion placement and outreach
- Public Relations support — build local awareness and support
- Crisis communication
- Sermons That Work

supporting connecting listening resources conduits connections

Would you like a partner in engaging your diocese in environmental justice?

Establishing programs at diocesan camps and conference centers

Developing truth and reconciliation processes around the intersection of poverty and the environment

Environmental justice consultations at seminaries

Grants for environmental justice fellowships

Establishing a statewide public policy network, including grants

Training in Asset-Based Community Development

Grants:

- For internships for young adults working in U.S. poverty alleviation
- For ministries addressing U.S. poverty (Jubilee)

Training and logistical support:

- For meeting with political representatives in Washington
- For advocacy at the United Nations

Would you like a partner in engaging your diocese in advocacy, poverty and racial reconciliation?

Would you like a partner to increase resources for mission?

Research on major donors

Training in development

Stewardship training

Co-investment services with no additional fees

Cell services

Copier purchases and leases

Guidance on intellectual property, trademarks, and copyrights

Tax-exempt qualification

Opportunities for free and reduced-rate airfare

Meeting planning

Would you like a partner in administrative services and purchasing economies?

consultants links conversation

PARTNERS
in
 MISSION

THE Missionary
 SOCIETY

