2025-2026 Scholarship Required Documents

Before starting your application, please take a minute to review the scholarship guidelines, due dates, and more at http://www.episcopalchurch.org/page/episcopal-church-scholarships. Please be ready to upload any required documentation and identify the scholarship trust fund(s) for which you are applying.

Required Documents

Please take a moment to review the information you've provided on the previous pages and make sure that all responses are complete and accurate.

Required for ALL APPLICANTS:
- Letter of enrollment
- Pro-forma statement or tuition estimate
- Written endorsement from your diocesan bishop
- Personal statement: a short review of your personal history and your aspirations for the future (not required for children of missionaries K-12). Please limit to 1-2 typewritten pages double spaced.
- Photo

Required for SEMINARIANS only:
- Letter of recommendation or support from your seminary dean or advisor (if currently enrolled)
- Official transcript from seminary (if currently enrolled)

Required for POSTULANTS only:
- Postulancy letter from bishop or commission on ministry

Required for APPLICANTS FOR NATIVE AMERICAN SCHOLARSHIPS only:
- Certificate of Indian Blood OR a copy of both sides of a valid Tribal Identification card with enrollment number
- Endorsement from your Tribal Council (post-secondary students only)
- Endorsement from the DFMS Missioner for Indigenous Ministries (post-secondary students only)

Required for APPLICANTS AT HISTORICALLY BLACK COLLEGES & UNIVERSITIES only:

THE Episcopal CHURCH

- Letter of recommendation or support from your college chaplain
- Letter of recommendation or support from a professor
- Recent resume, including community service and employment history

Required for APPLICANTS FOR THE HISPANIC SCHOLARSHIP TRUST only:
- In your personal statement (see above) please relate your future aspirations specifically to Latino/Hispanic ministry

Required for CHILDREN OF MISSIONARIES only:
- Verification from the DFMS Mission Personnel Office