Lesson Plans That Work: Lesson Plans for Younger Children
Proper 14 (B)
Old Testament: Psalm 23

BACKGROUND
We continue to remember Israel's leaders and how they strived to serve God. Each had their own challenges and gifts. The need for faithful leadership continues today and we seek wisdom from how these leaders sought the welfare of their people and showed their devotion to God.

A NOTATION FOR THIS WEEK'S READING
The lesson appointed for this day tells of David's son, Absalom, dying and of David's grief. Since this is not appropriate for a children's lesson, we focus on Psalm 23 instead.

THEME
The Lord Is My Shepherd

BEFORE CLASS
Gather the supplies for water coloring, find recordings of the psalm and something to play the music on.

BEGINNING
Greet everyone and ask them how their week was. Invite people to share a "high" or a "low" from the past week.

OPENING PRAYER
Loving God, you are always with us. Help us to remember to turn to you in times of joy and of need. Amen.

THE STORY: PSALM 23
Remind the group that our study of David continues. Today we will learn one of the psalms he may have written. Find Psalm 23 in a bible and read it to the class. Consider using the Contemporary English Version (below) OR the version found in the Book of Common Prayer.

You, Lord, are my shepherd.
I will never be in need.
You let me rest in fields
of green grass.
You lead me to streams of peaceful water,
and you refresh my life.

THE Episcopal CHURCH
Published by the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, 815 Second Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10017. © 2015 The Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. All rights reserved.

You are true to your name,
and you lead me along the right paths.
I may walk through valleys as dark as death,
but I won't be afraid.
You are with me,
and your shepherd's rod makes me feel safe.
You treat me to a feast,
while my enemies watch.
You honor me as your guest,
and you fill my cup until it overflows.
Your kindness and love will always be with me
each day of my life, and I will live forever in your house, Lord.
(Contemporary English Version)

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

- I wonder if this psalm sounds familiar to you?
- I wonder what part you liked best?
- I wonder how this psalm makes you feel?

ACTIVITIES

Watercolors
Invite the children to imagine what the scenes of this psalm look like - still waters, green pastures, oil overflowing, etc. Then distribute watercolors and invite them to paint a scene. If they don't want to paint something specifically from the psalm's imagery, they could paint a peaceful scene.

Play Music While They Work
Play either recordings of hymns with this theme (The King of Love My Shepherd Is, A Mighty Fortress Is Our God) or Bobby McFerrin's version which uses feminine language for God.

Encourage a "Movement Collage"
Invite the children act out or assume postures for key words as the psalm is spoken aloud or sung.

Instrumentation
Provide a variety of instruments and work as a group to decide which instruments go with the different parts of the psalm. (For example, soft and gentle instruments like chimes might work for resting in fields of green grass and leading beside still water, whereas the valleys as dark as death might be louder blocks.) Let children take an instrument to play when you read the psalm again.

THE Episcopal CHURCH
Published by the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, 815 Second Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10017. © 2015 The Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. All rights reserved.

GETTING CLOSURE

Gather everyone together and invite them to share their work or their favorite part of the class time. Read through the psalm again and ask them to raise their hand or give a thumbs-up sign at the parts they especially like.

CLOSING PRAYER

Dear God, you are our Shepherd. We thank you for comforting us and caring for us. We are glad to have everything we need. Help us to share your love with others. Amen.

THE Episcopal CHURCH

Published by the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, 815 Second Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10017. © 2015 The Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. All rights reserved.