We have engaged with other clergy and lay folks in Province IV , inter-faith work especially with our Muslim family to address specific issues from time to time. We host gatherings for conversations including an international women of color and wellness Conference, classes, pilgrimages and multiple training opportunities and exctensive consultation on a one to one basis.

We led the work that resulted in hosting memorial services to remember all of the folks who were lynched in Georgia and while that was not last year, its impact continues to be quite powerful.

Extensive work with clergy from Province IV at the present time who are engaged in a six-month Justice Pilgrimage with the Center for Racial Healing. This initiative has plans to move along to two more dioceses and this will be repeated until all of the Episcopal Dioceses are covered.
