- Episcopal City Mission is a program sponsored by the diocese that works directly with young people in the St. Louis area juvenile justice system. Chaplains provide a ministry of presence, offering spiritual counseling, guidance and support to the youth. Our parishes get involved through financial support and providing monthly "birthday parties" for the youth.

- The Rev. Marc Smith serves as our Gun Violence Prevention Deputy and has authored a curriculum on the Church's response to violence (we are in the process of making that available to the public on our website)

- Bishop Deon Johnson has authored an Anti-Racism Covenant that is being shared in our diocese and around the country. Hundreds of people have signed on.
