Section One: Telling the Truth About Our Churches and Race, including Truth and Reconciliation Processes (TRUTH)

Check all the Truth-telling ministries with which your diocese, congregation or institution has engaged over the last 12 months: The Rev. Scott Deasy

Has your diocese, congregation or institution or entity in recent years engaged in a Truth and Reconciliation process, understood to be: (please check all that apply) Episcopalians and non-Episcopalians through the Sacred Ground sessions. It is out of our stories — and the stories of others — that our passions develop within the context of the Gospel. Through them we find our paths to advocate, organize, build relation-ships, and seek the truth and Beloved Community.

Please describe these Truth and Reconciliation process efforts: Diocese of Arizona's committees, including the bishop search committee, the Anti-Racism Committee, Commission on Ministry, and the Deacon Formation Academy.

Has your diocese, congregation or institution organized a commission, working group or other regular meetings to work on a Truth and Reconciliation process?

Have Episcopal entities pursuing Truth and Reconciliation hosted events and webinars or produced any documents, testimonials, reports or other content? I Don'

If your diocese, congregation or institution has not begun to pursue a Truth and Reconciliation process, have leaders expressed interest in starting such work? Yes

What assistance or resources would help you to take the next steps around Truth and Reconciliation?
