PREFACE

The first edition of “A Disciple’s Prayer Book” was published in 2002 when the Rev. John E. Robertson was The Episcopal Church’s missionary for Indigenous Ministries. The Gospel-based discipleship practice of Bible study and reflection had already been in place in many Indigenous circles by that time, and this resource provided a convenient and effective means of engaging in that spiritual discipline. Since then it has been used in a wide variety of contexts by Indigenous and non-Indigenous people.

“A Disciple’s Prayer Book,” along with a Bible or scripture passage, provides an excellent way of encountering Christ within the sacred circle of the Gospel and with one another. It demonstrates that God’s word is not just a collection of words that were written down many centuries ago; rather, God’s word is alive and at work within God’s people and the community of faith. This resource can be used on its own or within the context of a more extensive liturgy.

As it says in the first edition, “This ‘Disciple’s Prayer Book’ is a gift to the church from native Episcopalians to be used on our journey together toward becoming a church of disciples in mission to all of God’s creation. Use it in peace with all that God presents you.”

May the Great Spirit, our God, be with you on your journey of faith within the sacred circle.

Officiant and People together

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born
of the Virgin Mary,

suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified,
died, and was buried;

He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again;

He ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection
of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

God of all, we pray to you for those we love but see no longer. We thank you for the peace and light you bestow upon them; in your loving wisdom and almighty power continue to work in them the good purpose of your perfect will, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Glorious God, with your whole Church we offer you our thanks and praise for all you have done for humanity through Jesus Christ. By giving him to live and die for us you have disclosed your gracious plan for the whole world, and shown that your love has no limit. By raising Jesus from the dead you have promised that those who trust in him will share his resurrection life. For the assurance and hope of our faith, and for the saints you received into eternal joy, we thank you all holy and gracious God. And especially now we lift up our hearts in thanksgiving for the life of N., now gone from us; for all your goodness to her/him through many days, for all that she/he was to those who loved her/him and for everything in her/his life that reflected your goodness and love, blessed be your name, O God. Amen.

Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, by dying for us, conquered death, and by rising again, restored life. ACTIVITY

Some activity may now be offered.

OUR PRAYER

God our Father, you see us your children growing up in an unsteady and confusing world: Show us that your ways give more life than the ways of the world, and that following you is better than chasing after selfish goals. Help us to take failure, not as a measure of our worth, but as a chance for a new start. Give us strength to build our faith in you, and to keep alive our joy in your creation: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those
who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

* * *

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.
